HAGUE PARLEY WORRIED OVER SMALL NATIONS

Mayor Anscomb Urges Council to Make One Mill Reduction in Tax Rate

Makes Appeal for Tax Rate of Forty Mills in Victoria

His Worship, in Inaugural Address, Says Public Expects a Sound Progressive Programme to Take Care of Needed Developments in Time From Time to Time on Business Basis

More Responsibility Upon Dept. Heads Is Suggested

A REDUCTION of one mill in the 1930 tax rate, bringing the rate down from 41 mills, which prevailed last year, to 40 mills this year, was strongly advocated by His Worship Mayor Anscomb in his inaugural address, which he delivered last night at the initial meeting of the 1930 City Council.

Mayor Anscomb stated that all civic departments have been placed on reasonably generous wage scales for the time being, and he felt it was the paramount duty of the council to afford the taxpayers equally good consideration. He urged the members of the council to set themselves the task of definitely fixing the tax rate for 1930 at 40 mills—a mill reduction as compared with last year.

His Worship suggested that where possible more responsibility be placed upon the heads of the various civic departments for the routine operation of the city's business, and that the council seek legislation to enable it to rescind the practice of requiring the approval of the whole council for expenditures of $50 and over, and that the principle be applied generally, so that the head of the department, with the consent of his committee, be empowered to spend necessary money of course within the limits of their estimates for the period.

The policies which he has in mind for the future development of the city are well known, the Mayor stated, and he interpreted the results of the recent election that the public appreciate and expect a sound, progressive programme to take care of those needed developments from time to time on a business basis. He expressed the hope that during 1930 these policies

Makes Claim for Looping Loop as Being First Yet

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—The claim was made today by Edward B. Heath, aviator, that his feat of looping the loop in a glider yesterday was the first of its kind on record. Heath, towed by an airplane, reached a height of 1,200 feet before his glider was released. He made four loops before the glider settled to the first, a short distance from the starting place.

FOREIGN SERVICE TO BE EXTENDED

VANCOUVER, Jan. 6.—Newspaper publishers and editors of Western Canada, members of the Canadian Press, met here today in preparation for the great extension of the news services in Western Canada following the printerization of the leased wire telegraph circuits now in progress from Winnipeg to Victoria, which will about double the wordage laid down in the individual newspaper office and will permit scope for a much freer interchange of news between the four Western provinces, as well as the publication of more Eastern Canadian news in the West and more Western Canadian news in the East.

ROME STIRRED OVER SCENE OF GREAT DISPLAY

Bride-to-Be of Crown Prince Introduced to Visiting Royalty and Italian Officers of State

ROYAL GREETING GIVEN PRINCESS

ROME, Jan. 6 (Canadian Press Cable).—Princess Marie Jose, of Belgium, standing beside her future husband, Crown Prince Humbert, of Italy, this evening made the acquaintance of all the high officials of the kingdom over which she one day will reign.

Surrounded by the members of her own and her fiancé's families, the young lady from the North was the centre of attraction at a formal reception in the Quirinal Palace, residence of the sovereigns of Italy. For brilliance of decoration and wealth of gifts, the uniform reception surpassed any such function that Rome has seen for a quarter of a century.

REGAL ASSEMBLAGE

The select company invited to be presented to the Princess was restricted to the visiting kings and queens and princes and princesses, the principal officials of the Italian State and the Belgian officials accompanying the bridal party. The members of the diplomatic corps were the only others invited.

The line of dignitaries that slowly passed before her this evening was headed by Premier Mussolini and other wearers of the order of the Annunziata, the highest decoration within the gift of the Italian monarch. Premier Mussolini was in full dress uniform, dark blue with

"Empire" and "Garden" Are Names Chosen

The names of the two Victoria exchanges, when the dial system is inaugurated, will be "Empire" and "Garden," it was announced by T.C. Telephone Company yesterday. The choice much more limited than the public would expect, as the words must be of two syllables, beginning with "E" and "G," and absolutely different in pronunciation from two-syllable names used for exchanges elsewhere on the system of the company.

The names "Belmont" and "Colquhoun" conform to the requirements, but "Gordon Head" did not, hence the recent change to "Albion."

New Plan to Stop Liquor Smuggling Into U. S. Has Been Devised by Experts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Plans for tightening up the Canadian border to prevent liquor smuggling have been worked out at the Treasury Department, which provide for an increase of approximately 500 in the number of ports of entry and consolidation and increase of the border guards. Ports of entry would be raised from 100 to approximately 600, and entrance to or exit from the country forbidden, except at designated points. The plan has been proposed to Canada.

Necessity of Providing Minister for Quebec Involves Further Shifting of Federal Portfolios

FURTHER SHUFFLE MADE INEVITABLE

Approach of Announcement of Opening of Parliament Creates Need for Some Quick Action

OTTAWA, Jan. 6.—With Hon. T. A. Crerar in the Cabinet and Hon. Robert Forke, a member of the Senate, political interest now shifts to Quebec. Prime Minister MacKenzie King has announced that Quebec will be restored to Cabinet position equal to that which it held in relation to the other provinces, before the Finance portfolio went west. He did not say how he proposed to do this. Consequently there is much conjecture as to just what will happen.

MUST SATISFY QUEBEC

Quebec. It is pointed out, is entitled to another of the major portfolios. The Protestant minority is entitled to Cabinet representation. Will another portfolio be selected as the representative of the minority in Quebec? These are some of the questions which are being asked.

Tomorrow afternoon there is a meeting of the Cabinet. It is the second meeting to be held since Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice and Quebec lieutenant of Mr. King, returned from his visit to London.

Since the last meeting took place, Mr. Lapointe has had an opportunity to pay a brief visit to Quebec. From that visit he returned this evening with nothing to say on the Quebec situation.

CANNOT BE DELAY

In announcing that Quebec will be given back her old quota, the Prime Minister intimated that this

C.N.R. APPOINTMENTS NEW TRAFFIC HEAD

Announcement of the appointment was made in a circular issued tonight by Mr. R. L. Burnap, vice-president in charge of traffic and approved by Sir Henry Thornton. The appointment is effective immediately.

PREPAYMENT OF TAXES TO CITY TOTALS $60,000

First Four Days of Business in New Year See Citizens Paying Current Taxes at City Hall

INTEREST OF SIX PER CENT GIVEN

Nearly $60,000 has been paid into the city treasury in the first four days of business in the new year in prepaid taxes. It was learned yesterday at the City Hall.

The prepayment of taxes system, which was inaugurated in 1927 by City Treasurer Edwin C. Smith, has proved most popular with the ratepayers, and with each succeeding year a greater number of taxpayers avail themselves of the opportunity of paying in advance their taxes to the city.

Last year the prepayment of taxes system had its most successful period, exactly 3,325 taxpayers taking advantage of the facilities to prepay their taxes. The sum of $559,974 was paid into the civic exchequer in prepaid taxes in 1928, and a total of $14,002 was rebated in interest to those taxpayers.

Canners and Fishers Agree Upon Question of Control By Provincial Government

VANCOUVER, Jan. 6.—Fishermen and packers at today's conference with Hon. S. L. Howe, at the Court House, agreed that the Provincial, rather than the present dual-Provincial-Dominion control of fisheries in this province, would be more satisfactory. They could not agree, however, on the projected provincial limitation of cannery licences, representatives of the fishermen strenuously opposing any suggestion of restriction of cannery constructions.

TWO BODIES RECOVERED FROM PLANE

Discovered in Wreckage of One Machine Containing Men of Moving Picture Camera Party

ROUGH WEATHER HALTS SALVAGE

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 6.—The crew of the salvage tug Salt, working between squalls off Point San Vicente, today recovered two of the bodies missing since last Thursday's collision of two motion picture camera planes in midair. Ten men, all aboard the planes, lost their lives in the 3,500-foot drop of the planes into the sea.

The bodies were extricated from the wreckage of one plane, which the Salt towed to within a hundred yards of shore on Saturday, by Charles E. Smale, diver. They were those of Kenneth Hawks, director and husband of Mary Astor, film actress, and Tom Harris, property man.

THREE OTHERS FOUND

The bodies of Max Gold, assistant director; Conrad Wells, cameraman; and Ben Frankel, assistant cameraman, were recovered Thursday by speedboats which raced to the spot where the flaming planes plunged into the Pacific.

Heavy swells accompanying the rainstorm which brought an end to Southern California's four-month drought yesterday, forced searching craft to temporarily discontinue efforts to raise or to tow the second plane, which was located two and a quarter miles at sea.

TROUBLES AT LA HAGUE ON REPARATIONS

Little Entente Raising Questions of Payments in Order to Force Hungary to Go to Wall

TURNING SCREWS UPON AUSTRIA

Agreement of United States With Germany to Abandon "Sanctions" Creating Great Interest

(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service)

THE HAGUE, Holland, Jan. 6.—Negotiations for settling the non-German reparations, which have thus far occupied the centre of the stage at the Hague Conference, are meeting with difficulties. Foreign Minister Edouard Benes, of Czechoslovakia, despite long conversations with Chancellor Johann Schober, of Austria, still withholds his consent to the Austrian demand that all its reparations debts and credits be wiped out.

The Little Entente nations, Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Jugoslavia, bear no grudge against Austria, but wish to force Hungary to the wall, and are therefore turning the screws on Austria in order to create a precedent for severe treatment of Hungary later. They claim that Austria's inability to pay results from incompetence in the Government and over-indulgence in Socialist schemes in Vienna.

Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia offer to take Austria under the wing of the Little Entente if Austria will pledge itself to friendly neutrality in case of war involving the Entente and permit the others to ship arms across Austria. Another condition is that Austria promises never to unite with Germany.

CABINET MAY FALL

The Bethlen Cabinet in Hungary will fall if the Entente carries out its programme against that country, the Hungarian delegation here declares. Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Jugoslavia want to force Hungary to compensate former Hungarian subjects for private property seized by Rumanian wharves. Hungary insists that Rumania must undertake this responsibility.

PARLEY HELD ON REVERTED LANDS OF B.C.

Members of Provincial Government and Officials Seek Way to Dispose of Such Properties

LEGISLATION MAY EVENTUATE

Members of the Government who are directly interested in the matter of reverted lands, which from various causes have come back to the ownership of the province, met yesterday in collaboration with the various deputies and others officially concerned in the matter, for the sake of discussing the questions of the best means of dealing with such subjects.

The ministers concerned were Hon. F. P. Burden, Minister of Lands; Hon. W. C. Shelly, Minister of Finance; Hon. W. A. Atkinson, Minister of Agriculture, and Hon. W. A. McKenzie, Minister of Mines.

The subjects under discussion were those independent of the lands included within the Land Settlement plans and such questions as the dyking, irrigation and Oliver lands. These matters are being dealt with independently of the consideration that is being given by ministers who conferred yesterday.

As a result of the conference it is possible that certain legislation may be introduced at the next session.

ADD MILLION TO THEIR PAYROLL

SAULT STE MARIE, Ont., Jan. 6.—It is estimated that approximately $1,000,000 will be added to the annual payroll of the Algoma Steel Corporation as a result of the enlargement of the two merchant mills of the company, one of which commenced operations today.

FARMERS HOLD ANNUAL MEET IN MANITOBA

Wednesday morning, the meeting will move toward its most important portion.

MR. CRERAR TO SPEAK

Further committee reports and the opening of discussion of solutions are slated for the afternoon, and in the evening Hon. T. A. Crerar, Minister of Railways in the Dominion Cabinet, will speak on the record of the United Farmers' body. Almost one hundred resolutions, less than the usual number, have been forwarded from the provincial locals. One asks the executive board of the U.F.M. to oppose the Canadian Poultry Pool's request for increased duty on eggs; another asks that the Government be asked to take steps to place the Old Age Pension Act on a contributory basis.

Third requests that Continental European immigration be limited to no more than 25 per cent of the United States and British immigration total for the preceding years.

Presidential elections for both the United Farmers' body and the United Farmers' Women's body, slated for Thursday morning, and vice-presidents are to be selected in the afternoon. Committee reports on public health and immigration are included in the Friday programme.

man Worthington as head of the fire wardens, and Alderman Worthington will provide over the parks committee, which was guided last year by ex-Alderman John Harvey. Alderman Straith was selected to succeed ex-Alderman William Marchant as the council's representative on the board of trustees of the Victoria Public Library.

The two new members of the council, Alderman Alexander Peden and Robert Smith, were given places on several committees. Alderman Smith is a member of the public works committee, and Alderman Peden will serve on the parks and recreation committee, also on the Victoria-Saanich beaches and parks committee. Both Alderman Smith and Peden were appointed to sit on the court of revision of the assessment roll.

THE COMMITTEES

His Worship appointed six standing committees of the council as follows:

Finance: Mayor Anson (chairman), Alderman Mara, Straith and Dewar.

Fire wardens: Alderman Dewar (chairman), Alderman Adam and Litchfield.

Recreation: Alderman Adam (chairman), Alderman Litchfield and Peden.

Industrial: Alderman Straith (chairman), Alderman Woodward and Cullin.

Public works: Alderman Mara (chairman), Alderman Smith and Worthington.

Parks, etc.: Alderman Worthington (chairman), Alderman Woodward and Peden.

CIVIC REPRESENTATIVES

The council, on the resolution moved by Alderman Woodward and seconded by Alderman Dewar, approved the following recommendations made by Mayor Anson of civic representatives on various bodies:

Friendly Help: Alderman Adam and Woodward.

Victoria-Saanich beaches and parks committee: Mayor Anson, Alderman Peden, Woodward and Worthington.

Court of Revision on Assessment Roll: Mayor Anson, Alderman Worthington, Peden, Smith and Cullin.

would take definite and actual shape.

MAYOR'S ADDRESS

His Worship's inaugural address was as follows: "While the ordinary course of events it is general for the Mayor to make an extended inaugural address, I propose to depart from the generally accepted principle in this instance and just confine myself to a few remarks, and those very brief, on the main issues confronting us."

"I take it it is fitting that I should express my appreciation to the electors for the confidence expressed in returning me by acclamation. This gesture of approval, naturally, I highly appreciate."

"May I extend to Alderman Peden my good wishes at his continuing success at the polls and the hope that his return to the council may be most pleasant."

"To Alderman Robert Smith—our new member—I am sure we all extend very cordial greetings and hope that his public service may be pleasant to himself and of great benefit to the city generally."

"The policies I have in mind for the future development of the city are now well known as, despite the lack of a majority contest, those and the sound progressive programme to take care of those needy developments from time to time on a business basis. I trust that during the ensuing year these policies will take definite and actual shape."

INDIVIDUAL CASES

"During the past year all branches of the city's service have received which the royal cortege was to take on its way to the Quirinal Palace."

At 10 a.m. the station doors opened and King Albert, of the Belgians, the bride's father, strode forward closely by the King of Italy. They entered the first of several Berlin coaches, and the scarlet-clad coachmen whipped up their horses. Three mounted cavaliers followed them at a trot with sabres at salute.

Immediately after the Queen of Italy and a strikingly handsome woman wearing an old rose cape and a white cloche hat entered a second coach and were driven down the avenue between the lines of troops. The crowd roared cheers as the company of Queen Elena bowed in acknowledgment.

ROYAL PAIR GREETED

Meanwhile a third coach bearing the bride and Prince Humbert was well on its way before the people discovered that they had mistaken the bride for the bridegroom.

For her daughter. The crowd made up for its mistake by increasing its shouts of approval when it finally recognized their future Queen, who came entirely in white. Roars of "Maria!" and "Umberto!" rang out as the coaches proceeded to the Quirinal.

Being presented to Premier Mussolini and the Government Ministers and other wedding guests the royal couple appeared on the balcony six times in response to the hoarse shouts of the crowd.

Meanwhile the police lines crashed like paper, and confusion reigned until the royalty withdrew.

In the afternoon King Albert laid wreaths on the tomb of the unknown soldier and on the tombs of royalty in the Pantheon.

TROUBLES AT HAGUE ON REPARATIONS

If the Hungarian Government does pay these claims it will be called on to pay other claims arising out of the war and post-war currency inflation which virtually canceled bonds, savings deposits, rents, and currency. Payment of both categories of claims would cause a financial crisis which no cabinet could survive, the delegation here maintains.

On the other hand, if the private property claims were paid for by the Government and the other claims were not, the result would be a financial crisis which no cabinet could survive, the delegation here maintains.

U.S. AND "SANCTIONS"

The willingness of the United States to accept Germany's word for German reparations and not to insist on sanctions, as revealed in the terms of the separate settlement of American claims, has aroused considerable interest here. "Sanctions" is the word dominating the German section of the conference, but it is discussed mostly in the corridors and scrupulously avoided at dinners and teas.

The Germans want the final protocol of the Young plan to contain an express disavowal of sanctions as a guarantee of reparations payments, although they seem willing to accept arbitration as a means of determining if defaults in payments are willful.

(Canadian Press Cable)

THE HAGUE, Jan. 6.—Delegates to the second session of the reparations conference are facing several problems which have upset the time schedule of the conference and necessitated calling in more experts.

Announcement had been made that Austria and her reparations creditors had failed and further efforts at negotiation were in progress. The general reaction to this development was a disposition by the big powers to disregard the reparations interests of the smaller creditors and to go ahead with adoption of the Young plan as soon as possible.

MR. BRIAND TO LEAVE

Along with that announcement came news that Foreign Minister Briand will leave The Hague on Friday in order to get to Geneva comfortably for the Council meeting of the League of Nations on January 13. The fact that Premier Tardieu has taken things in hand was believed in some quarters to account for the Foreign Minister's decision.

The opinion is in favor of an early termination of the present session, inasmuch as Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, is known to be disinclined to dally with questions outside of the German reparations problem. It was thought by many observers that the failure of the Little Entente to come to an agreement with their reparations creditors might bring the conference to a quick end instead of prolonging it.

STRAIGHTENING TANGLE

However, efforts to straighten out the Austrian tangle are going on and Bulgaria and Hungary may be given the floor tomorrow.

The "big six" powers made two efforts during today to get the problem concerning the date of instalments on reparations due from Germany off the slate, but without success.

It was decided to call in Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, head of the Reichsbank, and other experts, to confer with the big powers on that question. While Dr. Schacht is not a member of the German delegation, he has held himself ready for consultation.

Soviet Through Graphic Poster

By PAUL WRIGHT

(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service)

HARBIN, Manchuria, Jan. 6.—Anti-Soviet posters appeared today in the Chinese sections of Harbin showing Russia despoiling China while Europe stands by with its eyes blindfolded. The posters recall the anti-foreign placards scattered over the Yangtze River valley two or three years ago, which indicated they were the result of deliberate centralized propaganda and not caused by spontaneous opinions of the people.

The Harbin posters are believed to represent the anger of Chinese elements not only at Russia, but at Chinese representatives who negotiated the protocol.

SCHOOL BOARD CLOSES YEAR WITH SURPLUS

Magistrate Jay Tells Gyros
of Trustees' Successful
Term — Police Commission Work Is Reviewed

NINE ALDERMAN SPEAK BRIEFLY

"The Victoria School Board has completed a most successful year. Not only has it maintained the schools at a high rate of efficiency, but also it has managed to live well within its income. The board is happy to have closed the year 1929 with a surplus totaling nearly $8,000," said Magistrate George Jay, chairman of the School Board, as a luncheon gathering of the Gyro Club in the Empress Hotel grill yesterday, at which the club members were hosts to the Mayor and council, School Board and Police Commission members.

Magistrate Jay considered that the record made by the School Board during the past twelve months established the efficient economy practised by the board.

The speaker referred to the fact that in the past many of the members of the School Board had sought aldermanic honors and had been elected to the City Council. "Thus the School Board has always had a friend or two on the council upon whom we can depend," he said.

School Trustees J. L. Beckwith, James S. McMillan and G. A. A. Hebbard, other members of the School Board present, were given a warm greeting.

COMMISSIONER'S WORK

Police Commissioner Walter E. Stansfield told the gathering that he was now entering his eighth year of stewardship on the Police Commission, and that he had endeavored to specialize in traffic matters. He said the Commission's program had had much success. The stop signs had resulted in the saving of much money to the city, and the safety zones had been of inestimable benefit to the motorists.

"The time is ripe for the installation of automatic stop and go signs in Victoria, and I hope, if we can afford them, we will have them this year. The present hand signs were put in as a matter of education to the motorists," Commissioner Stansfield stated.

Alderman Robert A. C. Dewar spoke in praise of the fine work which the service clubs in Victoria have been and are performing. He asked the Gyro Club to give its moral support to the City Council, and continue to take a keen interest in civic affairs.

Alderman John A. Worthington stated that it had always been his effort to keep down the mill rate, and he said he would strive for a reduction this year in the tax. He predicted that 1930 would be a prosperous and successful year for the civic administration.

LAUDS CAMPAIGN

More and better playgrounds for the children were advocated by Alderman James Adam, who spoke of the value and necessity of good playing fields in the community. He praised the Gyro Club for its success of its "Use-Your-Vote" campaign.

Alderman W. H. Cullen said that taxes in Victoria were not very high when compared with the mill rate which prevails in many other cities. However, he assured his hearers that his aim would be to reduce taxes in Victoria.

Best wishes to the Gyro Club movement, both locally and internationally, were tendered by Alderman H. O. Litchfield. He stated that on the Council he would approach consideration of all matters with a calm, calculating mind, and would try and serve the people, and do the greatest good to the greatest number.

Alderman J. L. Mara said he would like to see a number of Gyros attend the weekly meetings of the City Council, and urged the clubmen to inspire the citizens to take greater interest in civic affairs generally. He said the 1930 Council would do its best to reduce taxes, and would strive to give Victoria a sane, sound business administration.

PARKS FACILITIES

Alderman William T. Strath said that the past year had been a year of observation for him on the Council, and that during that time he had learned much from the other aldermen. He strongly advocated a policy of more aggressiveness and extension of the parks facilities, believing that the maintenance of parks and playing fields was not sufficient to make the city beautiful.

Famous Judge of U.S. Taken Ill; Is Not Serious

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Chief Justice Taft, subjected to unusual strain recently by his work and by the death of a brother, has decided to enter a hospital here for a week's treatment, and then to go to Asheville, N.C., for recuperation.

A formal statement was prepared on his behalf today saying that a bladder ailment, which heretofore had yielded to treatment, recurred, but that his condition was not regarded as serious.

The physician of the former President said he expected his patient to be able to resume his duties on the Bench within a month. Mr. Taft did not attend today's session of the Supreme Court.

POSTMEN MAKE CHILDREN MERRY

Annual Christmas Tree Is Held at Amphion Hall — Programme of Entertainment

After the busiest season on record for the local postman, Saturday afternoon and evening was devoted to making merry, when about 200 gathered at the Amphion Hall for their seventh annual Christmas tree. Before supper the kiddies played games, and games were again played after supper. The game, "Kelly Says," played by the "daddies," caused great merriment to the youngsters. At 7 o'clock everyone sat down for community singing and to hear a concert given by the following artists: Mrs. Playne, comedienne; Miss C. Lewis, elocutionist; Mr. Farmer, Mr. Burke, "Yorkie," and Mr. Harmer, dancer.

Every item was enthusiastically endorsed. Then at 8:15 Santa Claus arrived. After distributing the presents off the tree, Santa was given three cheers and a tiger when he left. During the evening everyone was asked to guess how many lights there were on the trees outside Spencer's store during the Christmas season. Miss Jeeves and Mrs. Pearson guessed within two of the correct number. A pack of cards was produced, Mrs. Pearson winning on the spot. The prize was donated by Spencer's Ltd. The rest of the evening was then devoted to dancing until 11:30.

The committee wishes to thank Messrs. Hawkins & Hayward for the use of the hall, the Christmas tree, also David Spencer, Ltd., for the beautiful prize for the guessing competition.

The following carriers formed the committee for making arrangements: T. Hay, J. Mason, P. Walker, R. Handerswick, J. Eddie, J. R. Clator (chairman).

Mr. Gardiner, the postmaster, spoke a few words during the evening, wishing everyone "A Happy New Year."

SON ENTERS ON PATH OF FATHER

Four New Members Called to Bar of British Columbia—One Is Son of Chief Justice

Yesterday morning the Supreme Court was the scene of a traditional ceremony when four new members were called to the Bar of British Columbia and two were admitted to the roll of solicitors. They were presented to Mr. Justice Gregory by Mr. Lindley Crease, K.C., and took the customary oaths. Mr. Justice Gregory, in addressing the students, expressed his good wishes for their success in their profession, hoped that they would worthily maintain its best traditions, and referred with pleasure to the fact that among them was a son of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

Those called to the Bar were Messrs. Gilbert Cecil Barr, Albert Reginald MacDougall, Allen Lewis Lewis and Christopher Aulay Morrison. Those admitted to the roll of solicitors were Messrs. Albert Reginald MacDougall and Allen Lewis Lewis.

Mr. C. A. Morrison, son of Chief Justice Aulay Morrison, took his jurisprudence course at Oxford and was called to the English Bar by the Inner Temple. He is a graduate in Arts of Trinity College, Toronto.

SYMPATHY TO PUBLIC MEN IS STRESSED

Rev. Dr. Wilson Emphasizes Evils of Deprecatory Criticism in Sermon at Joint Civic Service

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT CHRIST CHURCH

A plea for better understanding of the difficulties of those in public office was voiced by Rev. W. G. Wilson, D.D., in preaching to a large congregation at Christ Church Cathedral on Sunday afternoon, on the occasion of the first civic service held in the building.

Dr. Wilson deprecated the criticism so often expressed of public men, and thought if the critics would endeavor to put themselves in the place of those in authority many objectionable complaints would not be voiced.

Addressing the council, he pointed out that its measure of success would be measured by an earnest desire that the yearnings and aspirations of all people should be considered, and the well being of all made the aim of decisions taken by it as a council.

Dr. Wilson praised the initiation of this type of service in Victoria. He said in some ways similar form was general in other parts of the world, and declared it was a witness that the people of Victoria were God-fearing and a God-loving community.

The speaker gave an interesting address, based on a passage in the third chapter of Ezekiel, the watchmen of Israel, and spoke of the necessity of personal service, quoting an instance from the visit of the Prince of Wales to a veterans' hospital as showing how the Prince set an example of personal service, and interest in others.

The recent addresses of General Smuts pointing to the new aspect of affairs created by the changing attitude of society were also the subject of commendation by the preacher.

The service opened with the hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," and was followed by prayer by Rev. H. F. S. Luttrell, minister of St. Andrew's Church, special allusion being made in the prayer to the civic leaders present.

Major Anson read the lesson, taken from Romans xiii. Additional hymns were selected were "Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven," "O God of Bethel, by Whose Hand" and "Forward Be Our Watchword." The benediction was given by Dean Quinlan.

A collection was taken in aid of the Victoria Social Service League. All members of the council, and police commission, most of the trustees and former members of those bodies were observed in the large attendance, which filled the cathedral. A number of ministers were seated in the choir. Most of the principal city officials also attended.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor was accompanied by Miss Mackenzie, Hon. S. F. Toimie by Mrs. Toimie, and other members of the Provincial Cabinet noticed were

Col. Drum Elected

The name of Col. Lorpe Drum, C.B.E., was inadvertently omitted from the list of those elected to the executive of the British Columbia Council of the Canadian Branch of the St. John Ambulance Association at the annual meeting held at Government House on Saturday. Colonel Drum, who was chairman of the executive board last year, was duly re-elected to the board and will continue to take an active part in the administration of the affairs of the organization. He was unable to attend Saturday's meeting on account of illness.

LIBRARY FACILITIES

No one who has occasion to use the Carnegie Library can doubt for a moment the need for further accommodation. It is a question of a new and enlarged library building, or else one or more additional libraries located so that the strain on the resources of the central building will be reduced. If the latter is the plan to be followed a preliminary to it should be some arrangement with the adjoining municipalities whereby they will share in the capital expense for branch buildings, and such could be located where Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt would have the best opportunity of deriving benefits.

The popularity of the library is growing fast. During 1929 nearly 2,000 new library users were registered and the circulation of books increased by over 20,000. Conditions are such now that many of the books, owing to the frequent circulation they enjoy and the limited funds available for maintenance, are in bad condition. The space for users in the existing building is by far too congested. The Librarian and her assistants do excellent work in cramped quarters but the facilities could hardly be extended.

It would seem only necessary to concentrate public attention on the problem to secure a solution. The Board of Library Commissioners can evolve a plan for improvements, get the City Council to negotiate with Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt to secure the desirable co-operation, and then have a by-law prepared to provide for the expenditure. The present Carnegie Library has quite fallen behind in ability to supply adequately the needs of this community. That is the salient fact of a situation which calls for remedy.

POSITION OF TOLMIE GOVERNMENT

We think it was Sir John A. Macdonald said that the largest number of stones and sticks was always found under the tree that bore the best apples. The Conservative chieftain said this when he was referring to the criticisms of his political opponents. In the days of Sir John the politicians, like the heathen of other days, raged furiously, and the Liberal politicians of that time imagined many vain things. One of the vainest of the things that entered the imaginations of the "Grits" (as they were then invariably called) was that they could undermine the confidence of the people of Canada in Sir John and defeat his Government. That simply could not be done. Sir John's popularity was too firmly established, and the old leader remained in power until a more powerful foe than any politician attacked and overcame him.

A political leader has arisen in British Columbia who is just as popular within his special sphere as Sir John was throughout the Dominion. When a political leader is endowed with a keen and unfailing gift of humor and can turn aside the shafts (sometimes poisoned) levelled against him by telling a funny story with a moral, he occupies a very strong position. The Government of Dr. Tolmie has completed its first year of power. It has faced criticism of a desultory kind in one session of the Legislature. In a few weeks it will face the House again, and its opponents are exaggerating the difficulties it will have to face and the imaginary obstacles it will have to encounter at the coming session.

The leader of the Opposition has been up and down through the Province taking notes, meeting the people and feeling the pulse of public opinion. He has even been in Ottawa and has taken counsel with the Premier of the Dominion, and we are told he has come back like a lion roaring for his prey, and that he will make the session miserable for the unfortunate Government. The session will be held and the lion will roar, and at the end of it the Tolmie Government will be stronger and more popular than ever.

FOREIGNERS IN CHINA

China has denounced the extraterritoriality clauses of the treaties made with foreign Powers. This has been done in spite of a previous understanding that the Powers interested would negotiate on this point. If China had a stable Government, was enjoying ordered progress and had procured, through a succession of years, her ability to defend her own rights and the rights of nationals other than her own in her country perhaps little exception could be taken to the abolition of the extraterritoriality clauses of treaties. The very contrary, however, is the case. China has been in a state of political and economic disorder for years past. Armies of lawless disorganization have been at work. The warships of other Powers have never been so busy for so long in China in defending the lives and property of their nationals.

Something of what has been happening in China is summarized in a report of the Central Committee of the American National Red Cross Commission on Famine in China, which has been studying the situation for the past six months. That report says that, during the recent years of turmoil and military confusion, "the soldiers of routed armies, along with deserters and miscellaneous outlaws, have turned to banditry in very large numbers. It is doubtful whether the amazing extent and menace of this form of outlawry in China is comprehended in America. Literally hundreds of thousands of desperate and reckless men are engaged in banditry."

The Powers affected can hardly consider, in the face of conditions that have existed and that exist now, that the abolition of extraterritoriality is a move of practical politics. So far as Chinese politics are concerned there is less of an inclination on the part of the Powers to interfere now than ever in the past. The question is as regards the protection of foreign interests and foreigners in China, a protection which, seemingly, cannot be given by the existing Chinese Government. Japan has refused to recognize the abolition of the extraterritoriality clauses and China has failed to enforce its decision. The other Powers have yet to be heard from on the subject.

The whole matter would seem to be a proper subject for negotiation in which it must be remembered that China has not a democratic Government inasmuch as those authorities who represent the country were not elected for that purpose. They seized power by military strength and have remained in power by a military dictatorship. It has been a dictatorship unable to prevent banditry and unable to protect the lives and property of its own citizens. It follows that at present it cannot protect the lives and interests of foreigners in China, yet that is the responsibility it arrogates to itself by denouncing the extraterritoriality clauses.

SIR CHANDRA JANG

The British Empire lost a great friend when Maharajah Sir Chandra Jang of Nepal died recently. India lost a great statesman and the world a great friend of humanity. To Nepal he gave peace and prosperity. He built railways and utilized the water-power from the Himalayas for electricity. The greatest of his gifts to Nepal was liberty. The Maharajah Jang abolished slavery. That is his prominent epithet. He was no absolute ruler. It lay with him to persuade the people of Nepal to abolish an immemorial custom. It was in 1924 that he made his appeal, and at that time there were 51,419 slaves in Nepal and 15,719 slave owners. In his appeal to his people he reminded them that they had an age-old reputation as a brave people, a humane people, champions of the weak and the oppressed. Despite this the civilized world had power to say that Nepal nurtured the hateful institution of slavery. It was a slur on the name of Nepal, diminishing its lustre. He drew a picture of the happy freemen of Nepal and contrasted it with the unhappy lot of the slaves.

The slave, the late Sir Chandra said, bought when a child, might not even remember his parents. In his heart wonderment and sorrow and hungry jealousy found a place when he saw the affection bestowed on other children denied to him. A good master had a kind word for the slave child, but the child knew the difference. As he grew up the childish heart would harden. He was his master's asset: no more. Money was spent on him frugally in hope of a return. Even kindness was accorded to him because it paid better than cruelty. He had learnt the bitter truth that he was only a slave. Other laborers might toil with the knowledge that they were earning their own living and the comfort of their families by their labor; but no such diadem for good work well done crowned the brow of the poor slave. How could such a slave ever be contented? If he were given a wife and children came to him to bless him—they were not his own. They, too, were slaves. If his master (not he) were unable to keep them, the slave's family was broken up and scattered. In such weighty words Maharajah Chandra Jang appealed to his people. The appeal did not fall on deaf ears. Today the slaves are free.

SOCIALISM IN BRITAIN

Every million spent on unemployment benefit increases the difficulty of raising money for other purposes, however constructive or urgent. We suppose that no intelligent person, if told that there was a limited sum of money available for desirable public purposes, would deliberately have chosen to allocate the greater part of it to widows' pensions and the like. Yet this, in effect, is what the present Parliament has done, and the fact reflects seriously on the working of our democratic institutions. No responsible person can be other than uneasy at the present drift. Mr. Ramsay MacDonald at the present drift. Socialism, he told the 1917 Club last week, does not mean "merely distributing money." But so far the present Parliament has done little else, though the disagreeable side of the "distribution" has still to be performed.—The Nation and Athenaeum (London).

CRADLE SONG

Sleep, little loved one, safe and warm.
Shoheen, shoheen, lo.
Little dark head in the crook of my arm.
God's youngest angel guard thee from harm.
Shoheen, little loved one, sleep.
Dark thou art, and thy father is dark.
Shoheen, shoheen, lo.
Wild and free and swift as the lark.
Lovely and strong as the bright moon's arc;
Shoheen, little loved one, sleep.
Soon he will come to us over the sea.
Shoheen, shoheen, lo.
For sweet and true is his heart to me.
A gold bud of love to his heart to thee.
Shoheen, little loved one, sleep.

Sir,—It has recently been brought to my notice that several people who very generously supported the campaign for the blind recently conducted by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind have not yet received official receipts for their donations from this office. May I be privileged through the columns of your valuable paper to ask any who have not yet received their receipt to apply for same to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, 205 Royal Trust Building, Vancouver, B.C.

PSYCHIATRIC HOSPITAL

Sir,—The article in this morning's Colonist on the above subject is a source of joy to many that at last preventive work is being considered in our province. We feel, however, that this preventive work should have some clinic or establishment in all cities of any size. If Congress had the sense to make it a great hospital for the poor, as they are completely isolated from friends and relatives. We also need room that in the case of slight breakdown the preliminary treatment of a respectable kind for the unfortunate but good character case. We need to see jail doors absolutely closed to the subject of crime, as they are who have not completely gone into the subconscious in their abandonment of self, to stand before a desk and witness their name entered in a police record side by side with that of the criminal and then from this to the rude and crude surroundings confronting them in the stone corridor and cell, is a degrading experience which will abide with the semi-conscious patient through the rest of life, coupled with a degrading stigma. There are the things we must stop if we seek to cure our mental cases of middle age, who are not often of the feeble-minded class, but victims of the stress and strain of life, sometimes coupled with physical disaster. Among these patients we can find brains that are anything but feeble. These many times of great intelligence with at first, can be restored to normal again. In an article in the London Times on the second reading of the bill abolishing the ward system, Lord Dawson of Penn comments that none but the totally insane should be cloistered; meaning presumably those beyond doing anything for themselves. These secretaries, from a civic service in which Dr. Wilson was the preacher, who pleaded in judging to put oneself in the place of the inmate. When our doctors do this we shall soon find the criminal jail of no more use to the nervous breakdown.

THE ENGLISH TONGUE

Sir,—I was most interested in an article which appeared in The Daily Colonist, when our people, who are Dr. Vizeley concerning the mutilation of the English tongue. It is true that English has the reputation of being a broken and mangled in all parts of the world careless, slovenly, strident or illiterate speakers are to be found. Fortunately it is also true that all over the world there are lovers of our language, working for the preservation of its beauty and vigor, and I have to thank you, Sir, for their support in helping me to maintain the highest standard of spoken English in my school. Dr. Vizeley leaves out one of the worst faults of speech when he omits to mention affectation, a fault which ruins musical tone. The latter is perhaps the highest quality of good speech, I do not mean that a knowledge of phonics is absolutely essential to either correct or pleasing speaking. Anyone who desires to do so must acquire musical and cultivated speech without such knowledge.

FOREIGNERS IN CANADA

Sir,—The correspondence on the above subject seems to have been rather one-sided, treating the foreigner as a unit, whereas to get the broader viewpoint it would seem necessary to classify him according to his usefulness or his harmfulness in the Dominion. For instance, take the Galician settlement of the country along the Canadian National Railway, over twenty years ago. The land was densely wooded with poplar, and consequently passed up by the Canadian, British and American immigrants. The Galicians, however, with no clearing to be done, and Galician—coming from a country where firewood was scarce and very costly—when he found the poplar went with his axe, and his entry in a hurry, realizing that a fuel problem was solved for his lifetime, free of any cost except labor; also his first shack and barn material were on the ground. He wore his sheepskin coat in July and August, clearing and cultivating, and (with his family) slept on the clay floor.

It is doubtful whether this strip of land (now a prosperous producing agricultural belt) would be anything but a primeval wooded territory were it not for the "foreigner" who, in the second and third generation has abandoned his log shack, sheepskin, etc., for up-to-date conditions. Is this not an example of a Canadian? proving himself an asset to Canada? Again, turn to Rosthern, on the Prince Albert branch, C.N.R. The railway was built by English capital in the early days, poorly constructed, with the view of settling the country between Regina and Prince Albert. In the eighties and early nineties the hardships of winter drove many of the Canadian and British settlers out of the country, but at Rosthern elevators began to arise to meet the demand for wheat and grain raised by foreigners who, for defensive purposes, had settled in the tree-top villages and often destroy the homes of the Canadian settlers above the ground, taking a large toll of life.

In New Guinea, an island of the East Indies, the natives build their huts in the tree tops. This is for protection from the roaming denizens of the jungles, and for defensive purposes in tribal warfare. Shift winds cause terror in the tree-top villages and often destroy the homes of the natives in the branches high above the ground, taking a large toll of life.

Twenty years ago, and while finding good cultivated land, first rate stock and excellent roads, was struck by the fact that he was in a "Little Russia" all the time, i.e., that these settlers would not assimilate, but were a dead weight in their determination to perpetuate their fatherland in a foreign country, sticking to their own language and customs and obstinately, none of the "foreigners" were encountered on this visit, but several interviews took place with Peter Verigin—not long out from his Russian prison. The question of these foreigners being an asset is not on as sure a foundation as those discussed above.

In contrast to the agricultural "foreigner," we must now turn to the city-dwelling representative, such as were the mainstay of the Winnipeg strike, when the merchants and milkmen had to obtain "permits" from them to deliver goods to the citizens. However, with a good determined mayor and Citizens' League, Mr. Verigin lost out that time, and the Federal Government (Meighen, I think) realizing the potential danger to law and order in the Dominion, made drastic amendments to the Criminal Code, under which the system of agitator could be deported, the only thing he dreads more than any other, and also the only method of keeping him in his place. It must be noted, however, that our friend Woodworth, Labor member of Parliament for Winnipeg, whom I met at the time, was not totally unconnected with the agitator, strike, gets these amendments voted out at each session of Parliament, ably assisted by our ever obliging Premier, but, thanks to heaven, that good old watchdog, the Senate, refuses to unchain this pack of wolves and turn them loose again with their "permits."

Soviet rule in Canada. The Communist is no modern production, as witnessed by the following lines, written in 1770, by Ebenezer Elliott, the Corn Law rhymist:
"What is a Communist? One who hath yearnings
For equal division of unequal earnings.
Idler or bungler, or both, he is willing
To fork out a penny and pocket your shilling."
It is rather astonishing to find one of your correspondents holding up Australia, of all countries, as a shining example of prosperity—a country under-populated and impoverished by a small, but well organized body of agitators who have let the waterfront for over two years, a fest, unparalleled in the world's history, costing millions of pounds, starving out the settlers in the interior and putting the clock back half a century. This group of "White Australia" secretaries, the one Jacobson, married to a militant member of the Pankhurst family, was arrested but won freedom in the courts has apparently taken a rest from the waterfront and directed its activities to shutting down the coal mines by strike orders in that direction. Make the importation of a few foreigners might help to lighten "White Australia," which appears to be suffering from yellow streaks, suspiciously resembling jaundice.

Why all this fuss about the Menonites, a purely agricultural people, when our future legislators, in their mock Parliament, have found it necessary to obtain the assistance of an Oriental in their shadow? Does not this action forecast the extension of the ballot to our Oriental population? Think it out!

In closing, the foreign element, commonly couched at Esquimalt, should not be overlooked. The palatial buildings are being extended every year, and a census would doubtless disclose a goodly proportion of striving an excellent offer for food, clothing and shelter that most of our British Columbia citizens who pay for their accommodation. This province appears to be their "Eden" when they carry out investigations in connection with the proposed plan during the low-water period of the year. This action would be taken without authorization of the water board but would probably not be interfered with in view of the fact that no injury would result to any other interests thereby.

HIMALAYAN RECORDS

Sir,—In the Colonist of January 4 appears the heading: "German Explorer Reaches Record Height for Climb in Himalayas." It states that a camp was established at a height of 24,400 feet. It further states that "although they failed to achieve their objective, they reached a height of 24,500 feet, which is a record for a climb."

Permit me to give a few facts concerning the achievements of the 1922 Everest Expedition, which are taken from the book by General Hon. C. G. Bruce, published in 1923. There were two high camps, one at 23,000 feet and one at 25,000 feet. In addition, on May 21, 1922, a party of four mountaineers reached the height of 26,983 feet.

I leave your readers to judge for themselves whether the word "record" should in any way be used by the above German expedition in the Himalayan Mountains.

CHANGE IN FIRE LIMITS IS ASKED

City Council Refers Recommendations of Building Inspector to Fire Wardens for Report

Contending that the expansion of the fire limits in Victoria is necessary, City Building Inspector James Barf recommended to the City Council last night that the fire limits be extended, chiefly in an easterly direction.

At the present time fire limits number two terminate at the centre of Vancouver Street, from the north side of Pandora Avenue to the centre of Mears Street, the first fire limits being to 120 feet east of Douglas Street.

"I would propose," stated Inspector Barf, "that the first fire limits be extended to the east side of Quadra Street, and that the second fire limits be extended to take 100 feet north of Pandora Avenue, both sides of Johnson Street, both sides of Yates Street, both sides of View Street, both sides of Fort Street and to the centre of Mears Street. This extension would all be in an easterly direction to a point 100 feet east of Cook Street, that is to say, both sides of Cook Street between 100 feet north of Pandora Avenue and the centre of Mears Street."

"I should also wish to include 100 feet south of Belleville Street from Blanshard Street to Government Street, thence along Government Street to 100 feet south of Superior Street."

Inspector Barf's recommendations were referred by the council to the fire wardens for report.

FRUIT BRINGS IN IMPROVED PRICES

Good Progress Being Made With the Disposal of Okanagan Fruit at Better Prices

VANCOUVER, Jan. 6.—Disposal of the Okanagan fruit crop at better prices than last year is well advanced, according to Mr. F. M. Black, chairman of the interior tree fruit committee of direction. The number of apples sold today is less than half the number in hand at this time last year, he said.

Mr. Black is in Vancouver today to confer with the Lower Mainland potato sub-committee. He will also visit the capital before returning to Kelowna.

Very few suggested amendments to the Produce Marketing Act will emanate from the committee at the coming session of the Legislature, he said. Last year's wholesale revision of the act cleaned up most of the committee's difficulties, he explained.

POLICE COURT CASES

Low Wing appeared in the city police court yesterday before Magistrate George Jay charged with distributing opium. At the request of Mr. J. C. Lowe, counsel for the accused, a remand until Monday was granted, and the accused was admitted to bail in two sureties of $2,000. Mr. M. B. Jackson, K.C., acting for the Dominion authorities, who are prosecuting, said that they regarded the case as a serious one, having reason to believe that the accused had been trafficking frequently in the drug.

At the request of the prosecution the hearing of the charge made against J. H. Forrest, of obtaining money by false pretences, was adjourned until Thursday. Mr. H. C. Hall, K.C., counsel for the accused, protested against the delay, and asked for details as to the charge. Or what false pretences it alleged that the accused had been guilty, he asked. Counsel for the prosecution arranged to give Mr. Hall the desired information.

City Prosecutor C. L. Harrison appeared for the Crown. Mr. A. J. Patton for the complainant, and Mr. H. C. Hall, K.C., for the accused.

Three automobile drivers were fined $5 each for not stopping at signs, and two drivers were fined $250 each for parking more than one hour in areas where this is forbidden.

CONSOLIDATION OF WATERWORKS SYSTEM SURGED

Mayor Herbert Ansonb Says It Is Good Business for City to Continue Publicity Bureau Grant

COMMENDS WORK OF CYRO CLUB

Consolidation of the Sooke Lake and Goldstream waterworks systems, in order that the city may obtain the best possible out of both, was a policy sponsored by Mayor Herbert Ansonb, in addressing the Victoria Gyro Club yesterday at its meeting in the Empress Hotel grillroom.

The Mayor said that if a person bought out a competing business it was only natural that such person should endeavor to consolidate it with his own and put them both on a paying basis. This was exactly what he wished the city to do in respect to the waterworks systems. The city would be applying the fundamental principles of business to that waterworks.

His worship alluded to his policy of borrowing for development and stated it would be necessary for the city to borrow to consolidate the two waterworks projects.

PUBLICITY GRANT

Alluding to the annual city grant to the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, Mayor Ansonb strongly favored the continuance of the present grant because, he said, he considered it was good business on the part of the city.

"It would be a retrograde step, in my opinion, for the city to withdraw that grant. The bureau has done great work in bringing people to Victoria, and the city would be benefited much from the tourist business. Only if it were found that the bureau was not functioning properly and was not working in the best interests of the city would the time come to cut this grant and make it impossible for the organization to operate," His Worship declared.

His Worship expressed the appreciation of the citizens of Victoria to the Gyro Club for the work it had done for charity, and observed that if the city did not have the assistance of the service clubs it would need a department of its own, which would prove very costly. He spoke highly of the success of the "use-your-voice campaign" at the recent election, which resulted in a larger vote than usual being polled in the absence of a contest for the mayor's chair.

CIVIC INTEREST

"I hope you will continue to take a real and active interest in municipal affairs throughout the year. All young business men should make it a duty to keep abreast of civic business, and in fact, be conversant with all phases of public matters. I note particularly the presence of ex-Mayor A. J. Morley, and recall I was on the council with him in 1911. That was the year of all years, and any man who has gone through that year will realize that the city will be peaceful and harmonious will prevail this year as compared with 1911," Alderman Peden said.

Alderman Peden said he would enjoy the pleasant association with members of the council, and the fellowship which would occur. He believed that the year would be a successful year, and stated that whatever differences there might be on the council, it would be recognized that the city would be working for the same objective, namely, the promotion of the city's welfare.

The short addresses of both Aldermen were received with applause.

NOT "WAR LORDS"

"We are not war lords, but simply servants of the masses of the people. We are only there for the time being and we are trying our best to promote the interests and welfare of Victoria and its citizens," Mayor Ansonb declared.

The Mayor stated that whatever the Council may do, "it should be done with the sincerest motives for the city's good at the time it is done."

"I trust that when the curtain is rung down on the year 1929 we shall find that our progress and improvement has been steady and that our citizens are happy and contented in the knowledge that the Capital City has been governed wisely and well, and there is no more desirable home city in our great Dominion," concluded Mayor Ansonb amid applause.

President Harry B. Dawson, in expressing the Gyro's thanks to Mr. Ansonb, said, "We are all very proud of our Mayor," which statement was received with prolonged applause.

Toronto University Offers Drama Contest

The modern drama course section of the University of Toronto University Extension Department has announced a prize competition closing February 15 this year, the subject of which is to be a one-act Canadian play. There will be first and second prizes of $100 and $50 respectively, offered by the Central High School of Commerce Literary Society.

The conditions state that the play is to be performed by the acting classes of the drama course, with design and production by the class in the art of the theatre and play production.

The play must have an exterior setting, and in character and atmosphere must reflect phases of Canadian life in Northern Ontario. The presentation of the play should not take less than twenty minutes or more than forty-five. The manuscript must be typewritten, the title page bearing the writer's name, plume, and a sealed envelope must accompany the manuscript, containing the contestant's real and assumed name, as well as the address. Contestants must be British subjects resident in Canada. Manuscripts shall be sent by registered mail to the University Extension Department, University of Toronto, not later than February 15.

Local Members Offer Services to City Council

Mr. Reginald Hayward, M.P.P., on behalf of the three other Victoria members of the House of Commons, Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, Mr. J. H. Beatty, M.P.P., and Mr. H. D. Twigg, M.P.P., and himself, last night, offered their services to the City Council in looking after any matters of public business that it might bring forward at the approaching session of Parliament.

The four members wished the council the compliments of the season and expressed the hope that 1930 "will be a happy and prosperous one for the citizens which we represent in our various spheres of public activity."

The council authorized that the season's greetings be re-echoed, and instructed City Solicitor H. B. Pringle to consult with the Victoria members in respect to legislation which the council will seek at the meeting of the Legislature.

ALDERMEN ALEX. PEDEN AND ROBERT SMITH HEARTILY GREETED BY COUNCIL

New Members of Civic Body Give Assurance They Will Co-operate With Colleagues

Aldermen Alexander Peden and Robert Smith, the two new members on the 1930 City Council, were tendered a warm welcome by Mayor Herbert Ansonb and their Aldermanic colleagues at the initial council session last night.

In his maiden speech, Alderman Smith briefly stated that it would be his honest endeavor to co-operate with the city council in giving earnest consideration and attention to all matters coming before the body. As a new member, he said, he was not acquainted with the details of city government, but would make himself fully conversant with these questions as quickly as possible.

"I wish my best on the public works committee to which the mayor has appointed me, and will strive in every way to advance the welfare of the city of Victoria," Alderman Smith declared.

Alderman Peden said he was glad to be back in Aldermanic service again, and was satisfied that, as far as the present year was concerned, all would be well.

"I see on the walls of the council chamber the portraits of some of the former mayors under whom I served. I note particularly the portrait of ex-Mayor A. J. Morley, and recall I was on the council with him in 1911. That was the year of all years, and any man who has gone through that year will realize that the city will be peaceful and harmonious will prevail this year as compared with 1911," Alderman Peden said.

The short addresses of both Aldermen were received with applause.

RABBIT BREEDERS WILL ARRANGE FOR SHOW THIS MONTH

The monthly meeting of the B.C. Provincial Rabbit Breeders' Association will be held at the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday evening, January 7. It was thought at one time that this meeting would be held at a later date, but any report circulating to that effect is contradicted by the secretary.

The principal business of the meeting will be to arrange final details for the Winter Rabbit Show to be held at the Willows on January 20 to 22.

The meetings are open to the public, and all interested are cordially invited to attend.

CO-OPERATION IS EMPHASIZED

Mr. W. Sanford Evans Addresses Members of Saanich Board of Trade on Co-ordination

EACH MUST WORK IN PARTICULAR SPHERE

The importance of self-help, the value of co-operation and the necessity of each unit doing its bit in its own particular sphere, were brought home to the Saanich Board of Trade last night at a meeting, held in the West Saanich Institute Hall, Mr. W. Sanford Evans, special commissioner appointed by the Provincial Government to inquire into the fruit-growing situation in this province, was the speaker at the evening session, which was introduced by Rev. M. W. J. Bruce, president of the board, as the sole commissioner for the British Columbia Fruit Commission, which is sitting at the present time.

Mr. Evans congratulated his hearers upon being residents in the Saanich district, which district had impressed him very strongly with its many possibilities. He foresaw the time when Saanich would develop into one of the most beautiful and prosperous garden spots in the entire world.

MUST HELP OURSELVES

"A year ago," said Mr. Evans, "the Province of Manitoba organized its own associated board of trade. During this past year the results, in bringing about a better spirit of co-operation and understanding, fully justified this incorporation. The more the people of Canada can keep in touch with each other, the better it will be in every way for each district and community as a whole. It is time that we realized that we have far more in common than we have about which to differ. This is one of the most practical lessons which any of us have to learn. The fundamental questions of production and marketing affect every community in the Dominion. There is far too great a tendency to look for salvation from others, who are expected to effect a better condition of affairs for us."

SURPLUS PRODUCING

Mr. Evans pointed out that Canada was a surplus-producing country in respect of foodstuffs, which must tend to compete with each other. A great influence could be exerted on the market by the amount produced. For instance, if European wheat production was less than the amount produced in this country, wheat prices would be higher. Mr. Evans said that the surplus produced during the coming year, her reduced demand would represent the total exportable surplus on the crop which Canada grew last year.

"On the other hand," continued Mr. Evans, "a small quantity of any particular foodstuff must command a high price, and the producers who are able to afford it. As quantities get larger, however, they reach a class to whom even a fraction of a penny is a consideration."

MAXIMUM PRODUCTION

"The one essential for the most favorable conditions in Canada is the maximum production, per acre, that any land can be made to produce. There is nothing in this Dominion that should be regarded as of greater importance than the increase of yield. If you will only concentrate upon doubling what you are producing at the present time, you will produce results which are astonishing. It can and must be done."

"I know that the thought occurs, but if we increase our yield, it will mean a corresponding decrease in prices. Prices would have to go very much lower than they are today, after you have cut the unit cost in half, as you would do were you to double your yield. However, I am not disposed to fear a great falling away in prices if we increase our production."

UNITS OF WHOLE

"As individuals, our sphere may be limited to all appearances, but we must not lose sight of the value of co-operation. For instance, this season the Board may look forward to a much longer life than they are enjoyed by any one of us, and there is no feasible project which we, as Canadians, cannot undertake with every hope of success."

"It was Kipling who said: 'For the strength of the wolf is the pack. And the strength of the pack is the wolf.'"

"That applies to a body such as yours. 'At every period of the world's history life's fullest development has only been found when there was intensive, enterprising and co-operation in the common life of the people. If we fail to get the most from the soil that the soil is capable of producing, then we are not fulfilling our duties as trustees of this province.'"

CONSIDER EVIDENCE

The Male Minimum Wage Board, which held sittings throughout the province for the purpose of hearing evidence for and against three proposals, having for increased wages for taxi drivers, for warehousemen and for fourth class engineers, sat all day here yesterday, going into the transcript of the evidence taken in November and December.

The work of the board was not completed. Further consideration will be given the subjects at later sittings.

The chairman of the board, Mr. J. D. McNeill, Deputy Minister of Labor, announced last night, following the day's considerations of the evidence, that it was definitely known when the next sitting would be held. Mr. George H. Cowan, K.C., had to return to Vancouver last night, and will not be able to attend again for a few days. The third member of the board is Mr. Adam Bell, of Revelstoke.

The chairman could give no forecast as to any probable conclusion of any of the three appeals before the board.

"How long before she'll make her appearance?" "She's upstairs making it now," Royal Gaboon.

Cold Weather Is Expected To Be Constant

With forecast of continued fine, cold weather, Victoria with a minimum reading of twenty-two degrees, or ten degrees of frost yesterday, was able to take satisfaction from the fact that in many cities snow fell, and in those places on the coast, that were spared a mantle of winter, the mercury dropped considerably lower than in this city. The range here was only six degrees in temperature, while Vancouver varied eight degrees from eighteen to twenty-six, compared with from twenty-two to twenty-eight degrees recorded at Gonzales Observatory. The pronounced cold wave has moved southwest, and now covers practically the whole of the province, and the neighboring states of Washington and Oregon.

TWO MORE HOMES ARE BURGLARIZED

Prowlers Get $30 Cash and Revolver Following Looting of Residence in Saanich

Two homes in Saanich suffered from the work of prowlers on Friday and Saturday nights. On Friday a change from a child's bank and a revolver were taken from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hancock, 3120 Qu'Appelle Street, while on Saturday cash to the amount of $30 was taken from the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hector, 3631 Quadra Street.

Entry was made to the Hector home between 8 o'clock and 10 o'clock on Saturday night when Mr. and Mrs. Hector were guests of their next door neighbors. Before leaving the house Mr. Hector was misled by the prowler.

Leaving the house at 7:30 o'clock occupants of the Hancock house had occasion to return about an hour later and discovered that the house had been ransacked. On investigation it was discovered that a .25-calibre Webley revolver and a small sum of cash from a child's bank had been taken.

Student Sustains Minor Injuries When Hit by Car

Struck by a car at 8:45 o'clock yesterday morning while he was crossing Quadra Street, Glen Underwood, 924 Darwin Avenue, a pupil of Cloverdale School, sustained a lacerated head and right leg, dislocated left thumb and body bruises. Mr. Harry Tanner, of Central Keating Crossroad, driver of the car, was proceeding south on Quadra Street at the time of the accident, according to information received from the Saanich police. Mr. Tanner conveyed the injured boy home, as it was thought the injuries were only of a minor nature. Mr. Underwood took his son to the Jubilee Hospital, and Dr. Russell B. Robertson attended to the injuries. The lad returned to his home early last night. "There's a lesson for us all in the story of the rich man who consulted his presiding elder about the new pastor his church wanted."

SCHOOL PLANS ARE EXPLAINED AT KEATING

Chairman Hobbs and Colleagues Meet Voters of Ward Six and Tell About Work of Board

MEMBERS CLAIM NO BOUNDARIES EXIST

Opening their campaign of education in connection with the money by-laws, which are to be submitted to the ratepayers of the district on January 18 for the purpose of raising a total of approximately $118,000 for new school buildings and additions to existing school structures in the municipality, Saanich School Trustees appeared at Keating School last evening.

In his opening remarks, Trustee F. V. Hobbs stated that the school board was a unit with regard to the programme of school buildings and additions, as embodied in the by-laws to be voted on. "We are here tonight to tell you about the programme and to answer any question you may care to ask. We are requesting the support of the ratepayers for the money to build these schools." Speaking for himself, the chairman said he had tried to serve the people of Saanich municipality, and had had wonderful support from his colleagues on the board. The schools had been kept in good shape, grounds were improved and good teachers maintained. Where it was possible, male principals were employed.

"We appreciate," continued Chairman Hobbs, "that character is largely moulded in the schools, and the best teaching talent we can secure is none too good in attaining this end. Learning to read, writing and arithmetic are not the only things acquired in our schools; the main thing is to inculcate the principle of citizenship among the growing men and women. Good service cannot be obtained cheap, and our policy of paying good wages has met with criticism from certain quarters. Our decision to engage an inspector proved to be a wise one. Formerly the district had to depend upon the school board for an inspector, and because his time was limited the results were not always satisfactory. When we were told by Victoria last Spring that the Victoria High School could not accommodate pupils from Saanich, this matter was discussed with the council over a period of some months, and by-laws were prepared, plans have been drawn up and tenders have been submitted, and we know the cost will not exceed the amounts asked for in the by-laws."

TRUSTEE BROOKS

Trustee Brooks, following Chairman Hobbs, recalled that he had served on the school board for a number of years. He had assisted with certain work which had been assigned to him, and he had been from time to time, citing among other things the building of Tillamook School and additions to McKenna Avenue and West Saanich schools. He deplored the lack of interest in matters pertaining to the schools, and when the one-year term was apparently going to be left open a year ago he felt that the school should be fully constituted and had accepted nomination on nomination day, and had been elected. Mr. Brooks believed that the high school was a necessity. He had not been in favor of a high school until after the secession question had been settled. This school should be erected in the most populous area. It had been suggested by the inspector that while one school was needed near town, the people of the north-end of the municipality were also entitled to a school. Many small schools have better records in progress than the larger schools, and a number of people in the district had expressed their pleasure over the possibility of having their own schools. Trustee Brooks stated that he was not seeking re-election; but that if the ratepayers were interested in the question of why they were asked to vote on the money by-laws next week. Could Saanich pupils have been accommodated at Victoria at a cost of $85 each, he would have been the last man to advocate the erection of these new High School buildings. When the charge was raised to $100 it was time to sit up and realize that for 300 pupils Saanich was contributing $30,000 and had absolutely no say in the policy of the schools in which the children of the municipality were receiving their high school education. The board was forced to provide schools, and the revenue and council had been asked to submit a by-law or by-laws. The board considered that the Tillamook School plan was the ideal one under the circumstances, with a small high school to serve the north-end. The latter school would supply a two-year course, on the completion of which the pupils would take the matriculation term at Tillamook School. He suggested that the time was most inopportune for embark-

TRUSTEE JEUNE

Trustee Jeune assured the people of Ward Six that the school board did not know any boundary line. It worked in the interest of the whole municipality. The ratepayers were undoubtedly most interested in the question of why they were asked to vote on the money by-laws next week. Could Saanich pupils have been accommodated at Victoria at a cost of $85 each, he would have been the last man to advocate the erection of these new High School buildings. When the charge was raised to $100 it was time to sit up and realize that for 300 pupils Saanich was contributing $30,000 and had absolutely no say in the policy of the schools in which the children of the municipality were receiving their high school education. The board was forced to provide schools, and the revenue and council had been asked to submit a by-law or by-laws. The board considered that the Tillamook School plan was the ideal one under the circumstances, with a small high school to serve the north-end. The latter school would supply a two-year course, on the completion of which the pupils would take the matriculation term at Tillamook School. ing on a large school project. The by-laws as submitted to the ratepayers were, in his opinion, all that were necessary to provide for the needs of the district. He had not decided yet whether he would stand for the board again, but he still believed in the platform he had enunciated and had promised to support prior to the time when he was elected two years ago.

TRUSTEE TOMES

In the opinion of Trustee Tomes, education had reached such a height, a great many people wanted to call a halt to the increasing costs. Education is costing a great deal more money, and the individual has to find it. The cost should be considered, however, in a broad sense. It was pretty well known that probably 50 per cent of all pupils attending high school derived but little benefit from the institution. He recalled that some bright girls and boys who had passed through high school and were later found in domestic service and very ordinary occupations. The people of the district were hard workers, got what little they earned from the earth; but the children were worth the very best that could be given them in the way of education. To send an uneducated child into the world today was a crime. Trustee Tomes said he felt that education was going to undergo very radical changes in the not too distant future. Children will be tested in junior high schools before admitted to attend senior high schools.

The plans for the present school programme had been adopted after serious consideration, and looking to the future, when the high school would undoubtedly be established in the municipality. The school proposed for the north end would be as satisfactory as the same grades taught in Victoria. The school that it was now proposed to build would eventually serve as a junior high, would fill the gap between the Cloverdale schools. Opponents would state that "we could never keep up workshops in connection with this building, which is to be done. Trustee Tomes asked the meeting carefully to consider the proposition from every angle. The school programme was essentially for the benefit of their loved ones, as well as in the best interests of the district. It was not a matter of slight extra cost which it would entail, but a very vital question indeed."

COMMENDS COLLEAGUES

Before closing the meeting, Chairman Hobbs referred to the plans which were displayed on the blackboard. He intimated that he would be exceedingly disappointed if the by-laws were defeated. He hoped that Trustee Jeune, Tomes and Brooks would run, and be elected. He was retiring from the board, but he was sure the school affairs of the municipality were in safe hands if his colleagues were administering them.

POWER HOUSE SITE CHOSEN

QUALICUM BEACH AND PARKSVILLE LIGHTING SYSTEM IS BEING EXTENDED

Generating Unit Will Be Complete Until Company Can Deliver Campbell River Power

A site has been obtained near Qualicum Beach station, on the north side of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway, for the power house of the National Utilities Company, a subsidiary of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company. This building, which is to be of brick and steel construction on concrete foundation, will house the plant for the Qualicum and Parksville lighting and power extension now in progress by the company. It will house a Diesel engine driving a generator producing 4,000 volts, capable of being stepped down to consumers at 110 and 220 volts. Completion of the building is expected in March, after which two months will be required for installation. When complete the existing plant at Parksville will be closed down. A wiring is being renewed, including that of the old Parksville plant, entirely new construction being carried out. About 600 poles have been placed in position, the area to be served being along the Island Highway from the Corfield Road, Parksville, to just beyond Dashedwood Station and adjacent areas.

SAYS AUTO CAMPS POTENTIAL SLUMS

Building Inspector Barf Asks Council to Prohibit Erection of Such Camps Within City Limits

A recommendation that auto camps be not allowed within the city limits was made by City Building Inspector James Barf, in a letter to the City Council last night. The building inspector pointed out that there was an increasing tendency to do up the establishment of auto camps within the city limits, and stressed the desirability of preventing further erections of this type.

"And in this connection," he said, "I have recently had an application for a permit to erect a bungalow dwelling which, upon investigation proved to be merely a cabin of the auto camp variety, the greater portion being intended to house automobiles. The refusing of this permit brought out the information that, with a permit once obtained, it was the intention of the applicant to erect a number of such buildings, which in the end would comprise an auto camp."

"As previously reported, auto camps are now potential slums, as evidenced by the camps now in existence."

Alderman J. L. Mara's motion that the matter be referred to City Council H. F. Pringle, for report to see if the city has the power to prohibit the erection of auto camps was approved by the Council.

City Hall Activities in Brief

The City Council last night received a petition, signed by Mrs. F. E. Purdy and nineteen other property owners and residents on 22nd and St. Lawrence Streets, drawing attention to the condition of the waterfront property bounded by these streets. "This place," the petition stated, "has been a public nuisance for some time past, and now that the sign boards have been taken down, we implore you to see to it that they remain down and the bathhouses removed." The matter was referred to the public works committee for report.

The Ross Bay Cemetery By-Law, 1925, Amendment By-Law 1930, providing for the increasing of the amount payable by the city for the funeral of an indigent from $20 to $50, was introduced, read a first and second time, committed, and given a third reading. The measure will be before the council next week for reconsideration, adoption and final passage.

Being directed by the 1929 council to get together a list of all billboards and their location in the various districts as laid down in the Zoning By-Law, City Building Inspector Barf has the council last night that in the city there are eighty posting stations, having a total of 265 parts.

Mr. N. H. Lord, collector, states that all owners of dogs are required to register them in the City Treasurer's Department, and to pay the yearly tax by January 31. The expression "owner," includes every person on whose premises a dog is harbored.

Mayor Herbert Ansonbom was authorized by the council to appoint a member of the city's staff to act as secretary of the Zoning Board of appeal.

A communication was received by the council from La Presse newspaper, of Montreal, expressing the view that the project of state ownership of radio, as suggested by the Aird Commission, would seriously menace the radio industry, and in view of the council's support of the position taken by that newspaper. The letter was ordered "received and filed."

City Building Inspector Barf informed the council that the permit fees were not commensurate with the service rendered, and proposed bringing these fees up more in relation to the cost of building operations; also that it was proposed to make an increase in plumbing permit fees. The matter was referred to the building inspector and public works committee for report.

The Municipal Chapter of Victoria, I.O.D.E., wrote the council, asking for the allotment of Saturday, June 21, for the purpose of selling roses on the streets in celebration of Queen Alexandra's Day, as in former years. The B.C. Protestant Orphanage Home made application to hold a tag day during 1930 in aid of the funds of the institution. The requests were referred to the finance committee, with power to act.

Building permits issued at the City Hall yesterday included those to Mrs. Jane Clark for the construction of a frame and stucco dwelling at 1510 Hillside Avenue at a cost of $2,000, Mr. A. C. Raife being the contractor, and to Lemon, Connors & Company, Limited, for the erection of quarters for first aid facilities at its mill at 2324 Government Street.

A protest against the continuance of a grant to Radio Station CPCT unless the owners of the station removed the transmitter at least six or eight miles from the city, was made to the City Council last night by Mr. W. T. McGibbon, 1288 McKenna Street. The writer stated that the radio station in Victoria had moved outside the city to improve local reception, and these stations did not receive a city grant. If the transmitter of CPCT were moved to the city, it would tend to improve radio reception here, he claimed. The communication was referred to the finance committee.

MEN OUT OF WORK ATTEND COUNCIL

Matter of Unemployment Is Referred to City Fathers to Work Committee With Power to Act

The question of unemployment in Victoria was referred by the City Council last night to the public works committee, with power to take such action as it might deem necessary under the circumstances which exist in the community.

A letter from Mr. J. Houshian, secretary of the unemployed of Victoria, was read to the council, the writer stating that "the unemployed would like the privilege of putting before your honorable body the condition of same in the city."

Alderman E. S. Woodward stated that it was the usual practice of the council to receive delegations at 7:30 o'clock on the night of council meetings. The council would be unable, therefore, to hear a delegation from the unemployed until next Monday night.

"I think, however, that it is too long for the unemployed to have to wait as I would suggest that this matter be referred to the public works committee, and that we authorize it to spend money or do anything it feels necessary under the circumstances." Alderman Woodward said.

Members of the council agreed to this proposal, and the question was left in the hands of the public works committee, with power to act. Nearly fifty unemployed men of Victoria, headed by Mr. Walter Inward, who was a candidate for alderman at the last election, were at the council meeting, and witnessed the proceedings with interest.

Alderman H. O. Litchfield, in moving that a sincere vote of thanks be extended to Dr. Wilson, said: "The sermon which Dr. Wilson preached at the service was truly wonderful, and I am proud to be a resident of a city which has such an outstanding light among its clerics as Dr. Wilson."

In seconding the motion Alderman William T. Strath said that Mayor Ansonbom was to be commended for inaugurating the civic community service here. He considered it was the proper practice for the mayor and aldermen to go to "the right place to dedicate themselves before entering upon the city's service."

Mayor Ansonbom described Dr. Wilson's message as "an outstanding address" and said that "if we all take cognizance of what he stated we shall all be better off at the end of the year."

Social Held

The January meeting of the Women's Association of Oak Bay United Church was held recently at the home of Rev. W. A. and Mrs. Ouy, and took the form of a social hour in honor of the senior member, Mrs. Walter Scott, it being the anniversary of her eighty-eighth birthday. A beautiful bouquet of pink carnations and chrysanthemums was presented to the guest of honor, and a candle-bedecked cake graced the tea table. At the business meeting, the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Birkland, occupied the chair, and appointed the following ladies as convener of the various committees for the ensuing year: Decorations, Mrs. Sutton; reception, Mrs. Ormiston; linen, Mrs. Tina Gardner; kitchen, Mrs. Maloney; refreshment, Mrs. Tinker; programme, Mrs. Harvey; ways and means, Mrs. Ruffell; social service, Mrs. Hibbertson. On Tuesday evening, January 14, at 8 o'clock, in the church, a rendition of "The Messiah" will be given as recorded by the British Broadcasting Choir under the direction of Sir Thomas Beecham. Solists will be Miss Dora Mabbette, Miss Muriel Brunsell, Mr. Hubert Esdell and Mr. Harold Williams. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Plumb; second vice-president, Mrs. F. H. Wells; secretary, Mrs. C. H. Williams; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Harte, all elected by acclamation. Various committees were appointed. In a few words the president expressed her gratitude to the members for their untiring faithfulness and their loyalty to her for many years. The financial report was not as large as in recent years, owing to the fact that the usual sale of work was not held last Autumn. Disbursements amounted to about $860. Plans are being made to present a play entitled "Marrying Anne," by Clara Rothwell Anderson, to be given early in March. Tea was served after the meeting by Mrs. McQueen, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Plumb and Mrs. Snell, followed by the customary collection for the flower fund.

New Year Dance

One of the most brilliant and successful events of New Year's Eve in Victoria was the ball at the Social Club Hall. The president and members were congratulated upon their outstanding achievement and special credit is due to Mrs. R. Jackson, president of the ladies' auxiliary, who was in charge of the excellent supper arrangements. Mrs. S. Roberts, assisted by Mrs. H. Horth and Miss May Copithorne, had charge of the decorations of the ballroom. An orchestra, The Ballroom supplied the music. The ball began at 9 o'clock and dancing continued till midnight when the new year was welcomed in true old-fashioned style.

Friendly Help Has Anonymous Donation

Santa Claus has evidently not yet left Victoria. He or some other benevolently-minded person, appreciating the suffering which the cold winds of the past two days may bring to countless homes in the city, has anonymously sent a gift of $40 to the Friendly Help Association, requesting that the donation be acknowledged through the columns of The Colonist.

She—"Did you see in the papers how some people were poisoned through eating chocolates?" He—"I fancy I did, but what about it?" "Nothing, except that I was thinking—how safe we are!"

Light Fabrics for Spring

THE sports mode for resort wear and Spring is likely to be practical in view of the wide range of fabrics which may be tubed nicely. Cottons and the various new weaves in synthetic materials are put to clever uses by designers now at work on dresses and ensembles.

The pique group includes the familiar cotton genre, rayon and other synthetic materials in plain colors and in brilliant modernistic designs employed for coats, jackets and so on. The great vogue of Shantung has inspired some interesting weaves in cotton and in rayon and cotton combinations. Yet another old fabric with a new appeal is cotton spandex. A smart new version is a cross between rayon and cotton Shantung and an eponge, particularly nice for active sports clothes.

Sheer materials have a distinct place in the silhouette of the season, and the synthetic crepes, usually woven with some cotton, are usually attractive.

Prints predominate, varying from dainty patterns to large, sprawling designs, from shadowy motifs to the rather bold and bizarre.

A spun rayon material closely woven and with no lustre is one of the most popular types for tennis dresses. This lends itself very well to executing into crisp little sleeveless frocks with interesting sleeveless detail, as indicated by the model shown right.

Pleats and gentle flares are shown in sports dresses with shortened bodices and narrow waistline belts. Buttons add to the trimming note, sometimes self-covered, again of other media.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK MCCOY

THE TREATMENT OF COLDS

The best time to knock a cold is when it first makes its appearance, because once it becomes established, it will generally last from eight to ten days or longer.

Unless a cold turns into some more serious disorder, it is self-limiting. After it has run its course, it ceases to be. Many people, knowing this, do not give a cold any treatment except to give it time. It should be remembered, however, that when a cold occurs, the body is trying to throw out waste products through the mucous membranes and it is better to assist the processes by opening up all of the body's channels of elimination.

One should drink large quantities of water in order to thoroughly flush out the system of acid wastes. The bowels should be thoroughly cleansed by one or two enemata daily. Activity of the pores of the skin should be increased by several sponge baths daily, and it is a good plan to induce copious perspiration by a sweating treatment. After the enemata, the patient should take a hot bath and get into bed, using only woolen bed coverings. Hot water bottles should be placed at the foot of the bed if necessary, and the patient should be tucked in so that no air enters under the covering around the shoulders. While the patient is perspiring, it is a good plan for him to drink an infusion made by pouring boiling water over a grapefruit which has been cut into small pieces. After the mixture has been allowed to stand for awhile, the patient should drink the juice, use-ing from four to eight ounces at a time, about every half hour. Do not use other food until the cold has abated.

The patient should be permitted to sweat as long as necessary until there is no abnormal temperature. The sweating should not be interrupted for any reason during the first ten hours. When the temperature becomes normal, the patient should be given clean clothing, but kept well covered for several hours longer.

It is better not to take any exercise during the first day of this treatment, but that it is well to gradually increase the exercises each day in order to gain strength. It is also well to remember that one of the principal causes of cold is fatigue, and that therefore sleep is a most valuable remedy.

If you employ this regime at the beginning of a cold, you can usually overcome the cold almost immediately. Should the cold become established, you can at least avoid the possible complications by using this sweating-fasting method. After you have cured yourself of this cold, try to improve your circulation and eat plenty of the alkaline-forming foods. Cheer up and stay that way. Avoid anything which will lower your resistance, and you should be able to protect yourself from falling into the trap of the discomfort of future colds.

Alpine Club President Anticipates 1930 Camp

In his letter of New Year greetings to the members of the Alpine Club of Canada, the president, Mr. Thomas B. Moffat, of Calgary, expresses the hope that there will be a good representation at the 1930 camp to be held at Maligne Lake, Jasper Park, from July 28 to August 16.

"I can assure you that you will see no finer scenery anywhere in the Rockies or Selkirk. Mr. J. B. Harkin, the commissioner of Dominion parks, who has kindly consented to our camping at the south end of the lake, used these words about it in writing to us: 'I don't know that any section of the mountains that I have ever visited gave me anything of the thrill that Maligne Lake beyond the Narrows did. I feel violently jealous of it. I am afraid to consider even an Alpine Club camp within that shrine.' For myself I must say that it is a region of surpassing beauty, with all kinds of good climbing, and from outlying camps we shall be able to explore much territory hitherto practically unknown. We have lengthened the time of camp as we realize that, even with the ex-

Russian Ballet School Is Continuing Classes

The Russian Ballet School, which is under the direction of Mr. Boris Novikoff and Mrs. Tatiana Platova, opened the second semester of the Winter season with the beginning of the new year last week. It is operated along the same lines as usual, following the programme of the Imperial Russian ballet school, noted for its perfect technique. The school also incorporates the modern Russian ballet, which offers unlimited possibilities for the development of personal expression, and is attaining great popularity in this country.

The Novikoff school last month had the gratification of hearing that one of its students, Miss Anna Knipfel, had been engaged for a three-year contract at $150 per week to give a dance number on a well-known R.-K. Orpheum vaudeville circuit.

EVELYN BRENT IS "TALKIE" STAR

"Darkened Rooms" Promises to Be Attractive Feature of Capitol Theatre This Week

"Darkened Rooms," the big attraction at the Capitol Theatre this week, is a combination of two of the stage or screen's most desirable qualities—an interesting plot, and good acting.

Sir Philip Gibbs, a leading modern novelist, furnishes the basis for the interesting plot, which was published serially in a popular magazine about a year ago. Evelyn Brent furnishes the bulk of the good acting. This is her first starring picture and her fifth "all-talking" role.

Miss Brent is a superb actress. Her work is always natural, convincing and real. She turns in a fine performance in this thriller-romance. Neil Hamilton is seen and heard to great advantage in a role that is a new type for him, and the supporting players, David Newell, Doris Hill and E. H. Calvert, deserve much credit for their clever work. There is an ample quantity of rib-ticking humor supplied by Gale Henry, Wallace MacDonald, Blanche Craig and Sammy Brickner.

COLUMBIA The maddened whirl of seven hundred crazed steers in stampede is one of the many thrilling moments in the latest Paramount picture of a Zane Grey novel entitled "Sunset Pass." Extreme care was exercised by technical men attached to the Holt company on location in Arizona to protect both

BROADWAY LIFE IS PORTRAYED

Talking Picture, "Midnight Daddies," Features Coliseum Theatre Bill

The glitter and glamour of Broadway, where the word "angel" hasn't any association with flying cherubs and where a "sucker" doesn't mean scales and "sap" doesn't mean something that comes up in trees in the Spring, has been chosen by Mack Sennett, master comedian producer, for the locale of his first feature-length, all-talking, laugh-making picture, "Midnight Daddies."

The talking pictures seem to have adopted Broadway as the favorite spot about which to weave their dialogue plots. No less than half a dozen pictures blaring with the bright lights of Broadway have made their appearance since the screen has found its way without exception, these have used the theatrical atmosphere of the world's most gaudily illuminated street as background for plots. Sennett, however, has chosen another angle for his picture.

Sennett's Broadway is the Broadway that the big butter-and-egg men from the West discover on their first visit to the metropolis. Broadway of night clubs, scheming promoters and pitfalls for the unwary bankroll, a street where adepts relieve the "sucker," the "sap" and the "angel" of his hard-earned coin—and make him like it! "Midnight Daddies" is now showing at the Coliseum Theatre.

Becomes Radio Star

Forsaking an operatic career for the radio, Madame Frances Alda, famous soprano prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera, will sing for the first time since leaving America's most famous opera company as the featured artist in the Australian tour of the Western tour.

Mr. Brown, who is a writer, I do not know what Mr. Brown is doing to do it. Mr. Brown is getting a job with a friend of one of the investors," said Cobham. "So you are in a hole, too? But I suppose you can give me the name of Cupid's bank?" Mr. Brown said it, and added: "I don't know what balance he has there, if any."

Spooky Picks Out a New Home

—By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Wise is he who knows his mind; Alas, 'tis seldom such you find.

—Spooky the Screech Owl

Spooky the Screech Owl was a busy little owl this night. He had got to find a new home. He meant to find it before morning. He wanted to be able to hoot into it as soon as daylight should appear. So Spooky was looking over all the likely places for a home.

"I don't want to leave the Old Orchard," said Spooky. "No, sir, I don't want to leave the Old Orchard. I've lived in it ever since I came here and there is no reason for leaving it now. I can find any kind of a home. I can go over to the Green Forest, but I don't want to go over there. I wish Farmer Brown and Farmer Brown's boy didn't take such good care of their trees. When I find a hole big enough in any of the trees, He was getting discouraged. Yes, sir, Spooky was getting very much discouraged. It was beginning to look as if, whether he wanted to or not, he would have to move over to the Green Forest. Spooky flew over to a big maple tree in front of Farmer Brown's house. He hadn't been over there before because he knew that there were no holes in that maple tree. "Hello," exclaimed Spooky, "what is this?"

"This" proved to be a house. It was a very nice house. It was a very well-built house. It had an opening plenty big enough for Spooky. That house could not have suited him better if it had been made for him.

That house could not have suited him better if it had been made for him.

and planned to return early the next morning to take possession of this new house and built a comfortable bed in it.

Of course, Spooky the Screech Owl knew nothing about all this. But he did know that here was a warm, comfortable house so near the Old Orchard as to be almost the same as it, and he took possession of it. He threw out the nuts. He didn't want them in the way. Then, having settled this matter, he went out to hunt for mice. It seemed as if good luck was with Spooky, for, having found such a nice house, he now found several mice in quick succession. In fact, he had all he could eat and was soon back in his new house, settling himself to sleep in comfort. Of course, he didn't know that this was Christmas. But it was and Spooky was getting his share of Christmas joy.

Meanwhile, over in his old home, Happy Jack the Grey Squirrel was busy. He was thinking of the new house he had found and how fine it would be to it and how near to Farmer Brown's Boy. At Farmer Brown's Boy, who had seen Happy Jack when he had found the house, and had seen him when he left it for the night, was wondering if he would return the next morning and move in.

Cobham smiled. "I shall have to look through them when we have had our chat, and I should also like to see the book. I have not seen it since a part of yesterday going through the stuff Mr. Mand put at my disposal."

He left no pass book here, sir, Willard he use money or deposited it, he must have done so himself."

Cobham puffed at that fine cigar for a few moments in silence, then: "As the position of shareholders, owing to Mr. Cupid's action, has a bearing on the case, as providing a possible motive," he said, "I shall be glad to hear if you have any idea what assets will be realizable?"

Poor Brown made a sound like a faint groan. "My dear sir, that is the question people are firing at me all day. I have no idea."

"Oh, come! You must have some. Well, superintendent, I think you may have heard he took three houses furnished and paid for them all in advance."

"Thoughtful of him, but they do not represent assets," said Cobham. "Or liabilities," said Brown hopelessly. "Then there is this factory, which he bought, what a fine thing to time on an architect's certificate, and I think only about five thousand remains to be paid. Naturally, I wired them to stop work when I heard what had happened."

"But they will have a contract. They might sue for breach. Is the ground leased?"

"No, I think I heard Mr. Cupid say he bought it, freehold. Yes, of course he did."

"Meanwhile, how much has gone into the factory?"

"Perhaps twenty thousand, I did admit to those payments. He got seven thousand five hundred for the ground."

"Have you any idea roughly what he gave from the various people who invested?"

"I don't know exactly. From what I have been told and from the letters I have got from shareholders, the money raised over two hundred thousand pounds."

"So there is a nice little sum to be accounted for."

Now the superintendent did stare at Brown. "You mean that serious? Do you mean to say you have nothing to show, no scrip or stock or anything of the kind?"

"I am afraid not. The petty cash in the office amounts to nine pounds four and three. There is the furniture and the typewriter. I do not know what Mr. Mand is going to do but I know my salary is due two weeks, and I must look for another job."

"Mr. Mand is getting a job with a friend of one of the investors," said Cobham. "So you are in a hole, too? But I suppose you can give me the name of Cupid's bank?"

Mr. Brown said it, and added: "I don't know what balance he has there, if any."

"Or how many more accounts," said Cobham, dryly. "I look here. You have heard of Demetrius, no doubt. Has he ever been in here?"

"He was here two weeks ago with Mr. Cupid."

"Were they on good terms?" Brown shook his head. "That foreigner carried on amazingly. I can't recall what he said next door, but I remember his voice, and one simply yelling and dancing about like a cat on hot bricks. The foreign man I mean."

"Do you know what it was all about?"

"No, I don't. But Mr. Demetrius was a very nice fellow."

SHIRES MAY BE BARRED FROM BASEBALL FOREVER

Scott May Meet Jack Sharkey at Miami on Feb. 27

Manager of English Heavyweight Agrees to Accept 25 Per Cent of Gate—Plan to Use Heavyweights in Preliminaries

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The figure that won't be downed, lanky "Phil" Scott, bobbed back into the picture today as the likeliest of all to fight Jack Sharkey in Miami, Florida, February 27.

Frank Bruen, general manager at Madison Square Garden, today offered the match to Scott for a flat 20 per cent of the gate receipts, whereupon Manager "Jimmie" Johnston replied with a demand for a guarantee of $75,000 and the privilege of 25 per cent of the proceeds. Scott's manager finally agreed to take a flat offer of 25 per cent.

Without Sharkey the Garden has decided there would be no adequate reason for a Miami fight.

Since Schmeling, not only in disgrace with the New York State Athletic Commission but is also 4,000 miles away in Germany, the list has narrowed down to Scott alone. A general agreement on that score will be announced officially this week.

The Garden has one more idea in mind. It plans to build the supporting card from the remainder of the first heavyweight fight, with negotiations under way to display "Young" Strubling, "Curly" Griffith, Victorio Campolo, Paulino Uscudun, and perhaps even Tommy Loughran, Otto von Porat and Primo Carnera, along with Scott and Sharkey. If the shock does not seem likely to be too severe for the evening's entertainment.

RANGERS TAKE SECOND PLACE

New York Squad Improves Position in N.H.L.—Standings of Teams Announced

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—With an exception of the Boston Bruins, the National Hockey League race has been growing tighter. The Bruins last week set a new league record for consecutive victories, twelve.

The International group leaders, fighting losing battles, remained almost on even terms.

The standings, including last night's games, follow:

Harry Payne Whitney's Horse Earns $129,000—Chicle Heads Money Winning Sires of U.S.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—With a trio of two-year-olds showing the way, Chicle, an imported son of Spear-mint-Lady Hamburg, topped the money winning sires of the American turf during 1929, when his get won $254,665.

The bulk of Chicle's winnings was contributed by three winners, Harry Payne Whitney's champion, Which One, being the chief contributor.

Which One, winner of the rich Belmont Futurity, won $129,455, while Dusenmeyer was responsible for $28,850 and Goose Egg, $12,925. Discretion, a four-year-old, was the only elder son of Chicle to add to the winnings of the champion sire.

Ranking second was Light Brigade, also an imported sire. His sons and daughters won $236,220, with the great three-year-old of Rose of Sharon, responsible for the major portion.

Thanks to Clyde Van Dusen, Kentucky Derby winner, and Bateau, a flashy four-year-old filly, Man o' War ranked third with winnings of $215,220.

Loosen Wrists for Shot From Rough

By SOL METZGER

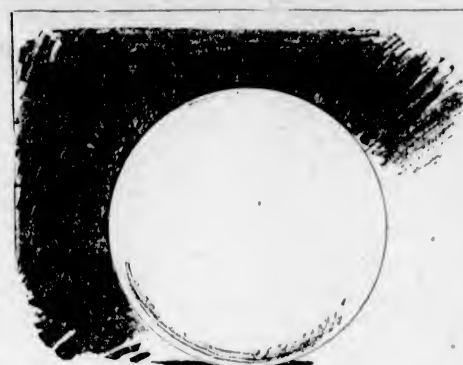

Piran wrists are fine for all iron shots until you find your ball imbedded in heavy rough. Then the orthodox method of playing the shot isn't likely to get it out. If it does you will be lucky to gain any distance.

Fred Brandt, the big, strong pro at the Allegany C. C. near Pittsburgh, where rough is rough, teaches his pupils a sure-fire scheme for playing out of the rough. You grip as shown in the illustration and loosen the wrists.

Then you take the club back with both hands, instead of the left alone. That gives you a more upright swing. Then you hit down and through with your loose wrists to pick the ball out of its nest of long grass and thick weeds. Next the difference between the run-up and nitch shots.

Great Crowd Expected to Watch Cage Teams in Exhibition at High School Gym—Two Good Preliminary Games Arranged

Basketball as it is played by the best American teams north of California will be seen tonight at the Victoria High School gymnasium when the famous Multnomah Club, of Portland, steps on the court to play an exhibition game against the Victoria Capitals, city and Island senior titleholders.

Besides the feature attraction, two Vancouver Island knockout fixtures are slated. In the opening game Peden Brothers will clash with Keating, senior "B" quintette, while C.P.S. and Sons of Canada will tangle in the second encounter. The initial contest will get started at 7:30 o'clock, the next one at 8:15 and the Multnomah-Capitals feud at 9 o'clock.

The visitors are under the supervision of Ray Brooks, who has brought several Rose City squads here during the past few seasons. Brooks, in a letter to Jack Taylor, president of the local league, states that the team performing tonight is by far the strongest that he has ever brought to the Capital City.

TEAM OF GIANTS

Besides being fast, every man on the team is over six feet tall, and Brooks is under the impression that experience, speed and height are great advantages in rounding out a good basketball team.

The visiting squad has two sets of new leaders for its Island. Against teams appearing in light jerseys the team will don dark maroon outfits with winged "M's" on the front.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—Jackie Fields, world's welterweight champion, scored an impressive victory over Alf Roe, French-Algerian, in a slashing ten-round bout featuring the card at the Arena tonight.

The fight was fast and furious from the opening bell, with both boys always willing to mix it and try for a knockout. Fields seemed to have little regard for Roe's reputation as a hard puncher and was ready to trade punches at every stage of the battle.

Management of White Sox Declares Player Must Clear Charges

Will Not Discuss Contract Until Frame-Up Accusations Are Cleared Up—Will Appear Before Illinois Commission Today

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Unless Charles Arthur (The Great) Shires clears his name of charges that he engaged in one "fixed" professional boxing match and had attempted the "fix" another, he may find himself barred forever from organized baseball.

The White Sox management, which has remained silent through the "Great One's" invasion of the cauliflower ranks, today made it clear it would not talk about a 1930 contract with the punch-slinging first baseman until he had gained a clean bill from the Michigan and Illinois State Athletic Commissions, which are investigating charges against him.

Shires must clean up those charges before the White Sox will be ready to discuss a contract with him," said Secretary Harry Grabner, of the South Side club. Too, he has to set up his suspension, which resulted from his last fight with former Manager Russell Blackburn last season. I have no date with Shires and have not seen him. When the time comes, we will be ready to handle the situation.

Meanwhile, Shires was ready to tell his side of the story before the commission. He is slated to appear tomorrow in an attempt to prove that his first professional match with Dangerous Dan Fong of Cleveland, was on the square.

Lessons in BASKETBALL

KEEPING A MAN IN THE BACK COURT IS NOT UNWISE

What is the danger of having both guards down the floor at the same time? Answered by C. R. EDMUNDSON, Basketball Coach, University of Washington, Pacific Coast (North Div.) Champions.

The danger of having both guards down the floor at the same time depends entirely on the team and style of ball that they play. If the team handles the ball accurately with the idea of keeping possession of the ball until one of its members gets a reasonably good chance to shoot the danger of having both guards down on offense is minimized. However, if the team has a rushing attack and shoots at the least opportunity the danger of having both guards down the floor is tremendous. A team with this style of attack should keep one guard back at least as far as the centre of the floor. One guard should always play mentally the back court position, no matter what style of attack is used.

Scott May Meet Jack Sharkey at Miami on Feb. 27

Manager of English Heavyweight Agrees to Accept 25 Per Cent of Gate—Plan to Use Heavyweights in Preliminaries

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The figure that won't be downed, lanky "Philly" Scott, bobbed back into the picture today as the likeliest of all to fight Jack Sharkey in Miami, Florida, February 27.

Frank Bruen, general manager at Madison Square Garden, today offered the match to Scott for a flat 20 per cent of the gate receipts, whereupon Manager "Jimmie" Johnston replied with a demand for a guarantee of $75,000 and the privilege of 25 per cent of the proceeds. Scott's manager finally agreed to take a flat offer of 25 per cent.

Without Sharkey the Garden has decided there would be no adequate reason for a Miami fight.

Since Schmeling, not only in disgrace with the New York State Athletic Commission but also 4,000 miles away in Germany, the list has narrowed down to Scott alone. A general agreement on that score will be announced officially this week.

The Garden has one more idea in mind. It plans to build the supporting card from the remainder of the heavyweights, with negotiations under way to display "Young" Stribling, "Tuffy" Griffiths, Victorio Campolo, Paulino Uscudun and perhaps even Tommy Loughran. Otto von Forst and Primo Carnera, along with Scott and Sharkey, if the shock does not seem likely to be too severe for the evening's entertainment.

Jackie Fields Too Good for Algerian Boy

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—Jackie Fields, world's welterweight champion, scored an impressive victory over Alf Ros, French-Algerian, in a slashing ten-round bout featuring the card at the Arena tonight. The title was not at stake. Fields scored a 147-3-4 and Ros 152-1-4.

The fight was fast and furious from the opening bell, with both boys always willing to mix it and try for a knockout. Fields seemed to have little regard for Ros' reputation as a hard puncher and was ready to trade punches at every stage of the battle.

Management of White Sox Declares Player Must Clear Charges

Will Not Discuss Contract Until Frame-Up Accusations Are Cleared Up—Will Appear Before Illinois Commission Today

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Unless Charles Arthur (The Great) Shires clears his name of charges that he engaged in one "fixed" professional boxing match and had attempted to "fix" another, he may find himself barred forever from organized baseball.

The White Sox management, which has remained silent throughout the "Great One's" invasion, today made it clear it would not talk about a 1930 contract with the punch-slugging first baseman until he had gained a clean bill from the Michigan and Illinois State Athletic Commissions, which are investigating charges against him.

Shires must clear up those charges before the White Sox will be ready to discuss a contract with him, said Secretary Harry Grabner, of the South Side club. Too, he has to settle up his suspension, which resulted from his last fight with former Manager Russell Blackburn last season. I have no date with Shires and have not seen him. When the time comes, he will be ready to handle the situation.

Meanwhile, Shires was ready to tell his side of the story before the commission. He stated that he had before the Illinois commission tomorrow in an attempt to prove that his first professional match with dangerous Dan Daly, of Cleveland, was on the square.

SARAZEN WINS AT MIAMI AGAIN

Shoots Brilliant Last Eighteen Holes to Win Open Title for Fourth Time

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 6.—Three eagles and a series of birdies brought Gene Sarazen to yesterday with a score of 300 to win for the fourth consecutive time the seventy-two-hole Miami open golf tournament. The little pro developed his typical second-day form to win the contest, after finishing well down in the list after the first day's play.

His retention of the championship brought him a total of $750 in the first of Florida's 1930 tournaments.

Second in line was Bill Leach, Overbrook, Pennsylvania, with 301 for the seventy-two holes. Cyril Walker, Saddle River, N.J., developed a 302 to take third money.

Harcourt Price, Miami, led the amateurs with a 331.

Lessons in BASKETBALL

KEEPING A MAN IN THE BACK COURT IS NOT UNWISE

What is the danger of having both guards down the floor at the same time?

Answered by C. S. EDMUNDSON, Basketball Coach, University of Washington, Pacific Coast (North Div.) Champions.

The danger of having both guards down the floor at the same time depends entirely on the team and style of ball that they play. If the team handles the ball accurately with the idea of keeping possession of the ball until one of its members gets a reasonably good chance to shoot, the danger of having both guards down the floor is minimized. However, if the team has a rushing attack and shoots at the least opportunity the danger of having both guards down the floor is tremendous. A team with this style of attack should keep one guard back at least as far as the centre of the floor. One guard should always play mentally the back court position, no matter what style of attack is used.

VIENNA, Jan. 6.—(Canadian Pacific Cable via Reuters). The Canadian hockey team from Toronto wound up their visit to the Austrian capital tonight with a victory over a combined Austrian-Czechoslovakian hockey team. The score was 6-2. The Canadians opponents included the best players from Vienna and Prague, and the game marked the third victory for the Canadians in as many nights.

HITS TWO HOMERS WITH BASES FULL

GUAM, Jan. 6.—Aloisue, native baseball player, was being hailed as a hero by Guam fans today as the result of his performance in a game yesterday between an all-star team of Chamorro and a team of United States Marines. Aloisue, who played third base, came to bat twice when the bases were full, and each time he cleared the bases with a home run, thereby winning for the native team.

SHIRES MAY BE BARRED FROM BASEBALL FOREVER

Scott May Meet Jack Sharkey at Miami on Feb. 27

Manager of English Heavyweight Agrees to Accept 25 Per Cent of Gate—Plan to Use Heavyweights in Preliminaries

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The figure that won't be downed, lanky "Phil" Scott, bobbles back into the picture today as the likeliest of all to fight Jack Sharkey in Miami, Florida, February 27.

Frank Bruen, general manager at Madison Square Garden, today offered the match to Scott for a flat 25 per cent of the gate receipts, whereupon Manager "Jimmie" Johnston replied with a demand for a guarantee of $75,000 and the privilege of 25 per cent of the proceeds. Scott's manager finally agreed to take a flat offer of 25 per cent.

Without Sharkey the Garden has decided there would be no adequate reason for a Miami fight.

Since Schmeling, not only in disgrace with the New York State Athletic Commission but also 4,000 miles away in Germany, the list has narrowed down to Scott alone. A general agreement on that score will be announced officially this week.

The Garden has one more idea in mind. It plans to build the supporting card from the remainder of the first heavyweight fight, with negotiations under way to display "Young" Stribling, "Tuffy" Griffiths, Victorio Campolo, Paulino Uscudun and perhaps even Tommy Loughran. Otto von Porat and Primo Carnera, along with Scott and Sharkey, if the shock does not seem likely to be too severe for the evening's entertainment.

RANGERS TAKE SECOND PLACE

New York Squad Improves Position in N.H.L.—Standings of Teams Announced

The international group leaders, fighting losing battles, remained almost on even terms.

Harry Payne Whitney's Horse Earns $129,000—Chicle Heads Money Winning Sires of U.S.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—With a trio of two-year-olds showing the way, Chicle, an imported son of Spear-mint-Lady Hamburg, topped the money winning sires of the American turf during 1929, when his get won $254,665.

The bulk of Chicle's winnings was contributed by the juveniles, Harry Payne Whitney's champion, Which One, being the chief contributor.

Which One, winner of the rich Belmont Futurity, won $129,450, while Duetmaster was responsible for $28,850 and Goose Egg, $12,925. Distraction, a four-year-old, was the only elder son of Chicle to add to the winnings of the champion sire.

Ranking second was Light Brigade, also an imported sire. His sons and daughters won $236,220, with the great three-year-old filly, Rose of Sharon, responsible for the major portion.

Thanks to Clyde Van Dusen, Kentucky Derby winner, and Bateau, a flashy four-year-old filly, Man o' War ranked third with winnings of $215,220.

Loosen Wrists for Shot From Rough

By SOL METZGER

Firm wrists are fine for all from shots until you find your ball imbedded in heavy rough. The orthodox method of playing the shot isn't likely to get it out. If it does you will be lucky to gain any distance.

Fred Brandt, the big, strong pro at the Alhambra C. C. near Pittsburgh, where rough is rough, teaches his pupils a sure-fire scheme for playing out of the rough. You grip as shown in the illustration and loosen the wrists.

Then you take the club back with both hands, instead of the left alone. That gives you a more upright swing. Then you hit down and through with your loose wrists to pick the ball out of its nest of long grass and thick weeds. Next the difference between the run-up and ditch shots.

TWO SPLIT LONG BEACH GOLF PURSE

Olin Dutra and Joe Kirkwood Tied for Top Place in $3,500 Annual Open Tournament

HORTON SMITH OUT OF MONEY

LONG BEACH, Cal., Jan. 6.—Ploughing through thirty-six holes almost impossible golf, of which the morning round was played in a downpour of rain, Olin Dutra, of Santa Monica, California, and Joe Kirkwood, Philadelphia trick-shot artist, yesterday shared the winning of the fifth annual $3,500 Long Beach open golf tournament.

Their scores were 216 each for the fifty-four holes of medal play.

The torrent of rain not only blasted the hopes of several leaders of the field, but dampened the ardor of some of the chosen contenders. Wild Bill Mehlforn, New York, and Craig Wood, Bloomfield, N.J., were among those who withdrew from play before they finished.

Charles Seaver, seventeen-year-old Los Angeles prep school star, who headed the qualifiers with a 68, one short of the course record, dropped to an 82 during the morning round. He finished one over par to tie for fifth place with Johnny Farrell, former United States open champion. Charles Guest, of Los Angeles, and W. H. Cook, of Brooklyn.

Seaver won first amateur honors, beating out George von Elm, of Detroit, by three strokes. Von Elm had rounds of 70-80-74 for a total of 224. Johnny Dawson, Chicago amateur, shot a 226 with rounds of 73-76-75.

Dutra and Kirkwood received $800 each for their share of the spoils, and Clark collected $400 for second place.

Horton Smith, young Joplin, Mo., pro, a favorite for the tournament, was caught in the height of this morning's rain and turned in an 81 for the round. His total of 232 put him entirely out of the money.

Walter Hagen, winner of the tournament last year, and Leo Diegel, of Agua Caliente, were forced to scratch because of an engagement to film a two-reel golf comedy at a Hollywood studio.

DISCOVERER OF JOE GANS PASSES AWAY

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 6.—Abraham L. (Al) Herford, sixty-three, discoverer and manager of the late Joe Gans, famous negro lightweight boxing champion of the world, at one time, died at his home here yesterday after an illness of more than a year.

Herford was one of the most colorful figures in the sporting world for many years. He discovered Gans, a fish cleaner in a Fleet Street market, near his sporting club here. He trained the negro and managed him until he won the title from Frank Erne in less than one round at the International Athletic Club at Fort Erie, Canada, May 12, 1902.

Wilson Almost Gets Pair of Gloves

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Member New York Giants)

Hack Wilson, the pudgy little outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, who by losing two fly balls in the sun in the recent world series, became the modern Fred Snodgrass, is probably the most colorful ball player in the National League.

He was offered $15,000 by Jim Mullin, the Chicago promoter, recently to box six rounds with Art Shires, the pugilistic champ of the American League. Hack hated to turn down important money like that, saying he needed it, as he always was a big spender.

"Why," said Hack, "I even tipped a waiter in Houston, Texas, a dollar after a meal. I'll bet Babe Ruth never did that."

Hack will have to travel a long way, however, to tie or beat Ruth's world record of giving a taxicab driver a thousand-dollar bill and telling him to keep the change.

It happened in New Orleans and Ruth thought he had given the driver a five-dollar bill.

Management of White Sox Declares Player Must Clear Charges

Will Not Discuss Contract Until Frame-Up Accusations Are Cleared Up—Will Appear Before Illinois Commission Today

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Unless Charles Arthur (The Great) Shires clears his name of charges that he engaged in one "fixed" professional boxing match and had attempted to "fix" another, he may find himself barred forever from organized baseball.

The White Sox management, which has remained silent throughout the "Great One's" invasion of the cauliflower ranks, today made it clear it would not talk about a 1800 contract with the punch-slinking first baseman until he had gained a clean bill from the Michigan and Illinois State Athletic Commissions, which are investigating charges against him.

"Shires must clean up those charges before the White Sox will be ready to discuss a contract with him," said Secretary Harry Grabner, of the South Side club. Too, he has to settle up his suspension, which resulted from his last fight with former Manager Russell Blackburn last season. I have no date with Shires and have not seen him. When the time comes, we will be ready to handle the situation.

Meanwhile, Shires was ready to tell his side of the story before the commission. He is expected to appear before the Illinois commission tomorrow in an attempt to prove that his first professional match with Dangerous Dan Daly, of Cleveland, was on the square.

SARAZEN WINS AT MIAMI AGAIN

Shoots Brilliant Last Eighteen Holes to Win Open Title for Fourth Time

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 6.—Three eagles and a series of birdies brought Gene Sarazen to yesterday with a score of 300 to win for the fourth consecutive time the seventy-two-hole Miami open golf tournament. The little pro developed his typical second-day form to win the contest, after finishing well down in the list after the first day's play.

His retention of the championship brought him $750 in the first of Florida's 1930 tournaments.

Second in line was Bill Leach, Overbrook, Penn., with 301 for the seventy-two holes. Cyril Walker, Saddle River, N.J., developed a 302 to take third money.

Harcourt Brice, Miami, led the amateurs with a 331.

VIENNA, Jan. 6.—(Canadian Pacific Cable via Buenos Aires)—The Canadian hockey team from Toronto wound up their visit to the Austrian capital tonight with a victory over a combined Austrian-Czechoslovakian hockey team. The score was 6-2. The Canadians opponents included the best players from Vienna and Prague, and the game marked the third victory for the Canadians in as many nights.

HITS TWO HOMERS WITH BASES FULL

GUAM, Jan. 6.—Atalgue, native baseball player, was being hailed as a hero by Guam fans today as the result of his performance in a game yesterday between an all-star team of Chamorro and a team of United States Marines. Atalgue, who played third base, came to bat twice when the bases were full, and each time he cleared the bases with a home run, thereby winning for the native team.

What is the danger of having both guards down the floor at the same time?

Answered by C. S. EDMUNDSON
Basketball Coach, University of Washington, Pacific Coast (North Div.) Champions.

The danger of having both guards down the floor at the same time depends entirely on the team and style of ball that they play. If the team plays the ball accurately with the idea of keeping possession of the ball until one of its members gets a reasonably good chance to shoot the danger of having both guards down on offense is minimized. However, if the team has a rushing attack and shoots at the least opportunity the danger of having both guards down on offense is tremendous. A team with this style of attack should keep one guard back at least as far as the centre of the floor. One guard should always play mentally the back court position, no matter what style of attack is used.

Trading on N.Y. 'Change Very Confused With Some Rises on Favorable News

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The stock market continued to drift about today in the inconsequential eddies of professional trading. A few shares, notably the copper, responded to favorable trade news, but price trends generally were narrow and indefinite. Trading still held at a low ebb, the day's turnover exceeding 2,000,000 shares by a scant margin.

A moderate rally during the morning was checked by bearish pressure, but trading turned extremely dull and operators for the decline withdrew before the close. Late in the day the general list rallied in sympathy with the copper shares, and closing quotations were steady to firm.

Further evidence of the January ease in money rates appeared in a slight in the call loan rate to 4 1/2 per cent, equaling the 1929 minimum, after renewals at 5.

In the copper, Anaconda, Calumet and Hecla, Granby, Howe and other shares, Inspiration and United States Smelting, both of which advanced 4 or 4 points.

Johns-Manville mounted about 6 points in response to a favorable earnings estimate. Michigan Steel and Clotex were strong specialties, mounting about 5 points. American Machine & Foundry, Matheson, Hall, Cotsy Internal Combustion, Ingersoll, National Biscuit and United Wood, Elliott also made substantial headway. Fox Film A. rallied 1 1/2 points in a large turnover, but closed up only 1-4 net. United States Steel fluctuated in a range of a couple of points, and closed steady at 169 1/4.

Allied Chemical lost 6 points, Auburn Auto nearly 5 and American Tobacco, Beatrice Creamer, J. I. Case, General American Tank, Eastman Kodak, Gillette, Lima Locomotive, Pullman and Woolworth lost about 2 to 4 points.

In the foreign exchange, sterling cables were quoted at $487 1/8-3 1/8 off.

The trend of interest rates was downward today, but bond prices, after an encouraging start, showed a dull market and many foreign gains disappeared in the later hours. As a whole, however, the list was firm, and the earlier tone of the market was reflected in a narrow advance by the United States Government

WHEAT MARKET LACKS FEATURE

WINNIPEG HANDLES SMALLEST BUSINESS FOR SOME TIME

Local Cash Market Very Quiet—Russia's Offerings Have Disconcerting Effect

(Branson, Brown & Co., Ltd.)
WINNIPEG, Jan. 6.—The wheat market was featureless today with the smallest trade in some time. However, while the buying was thin and all local, the offerings were scarce, there being no selling pressure in evidence. Prices took a dip of almost a cent just after the opening, but this was more than recovered later in sympathy with some strength being shown in Chicago.

While there was little export business reported over the week-end, the volume was quite small and was not reflected in this market. The local cash market was very quiet, with only odd cars changing hands at unchanged spreads.

Millers reported domestic flour trade as only fair and extremely quiet in export circles. Russia was reported to have sold wheat to France, but Russian exports are not taken seriously by the trade on this side, as it is not believed that any large amounts are available for export. Nevertheless, the fact that Russia is offering wheat is rather significant, and has a disconcerting effect on the markets on the world, with buyers lacking confidence.

The cash United States visible supply decreased 2,800,000 bushels, expected; the Canadian visible decreased 501,000, while on passage supplies increased 1,842,000, which indicated a slow demand for foreign wheat.

Coarse grain markets were draggy throughout today's session, and while prices held mostly steady, there was very little doing and very little in cash oats or barley. Rye continued to follow the trend of wheat, but demand is very poor. Flax was quiet and featureless, with very little demand from any source.

HIGH PRESSURE IN NEW ENGINE

CANADIAN LOCOMOTIVE IS TO BE MOST POWERFUL IN EMPIRE

To Be Built in C.P.R. Angus Shops at Montreal of Canadian Steel

MONTREAL, Jan. 6.—Designed to give the tremendous tractive effort of 83,200 pounds, a new locomotive, to be operated on a high steam pressure principle, will be immediately placed under construction at the Angus shops of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The engine, the first of its kind on the American continent, will be one of the most powerful in the world and will supersede the 5600 series as the most powerful in the British Empire. The capabilities of the new engine are demonstrated by the fact that its tractive force is 5,200 pounds more than the 5000 series and 37,900 pounds greater than the 2800 series, just hailed as the fastest and most modern passenger engines yet produced. Canadian material will be used in its construction, with the exception only of materials that are not procurable from Canadian manufacturers. Plans for the design were recently completed for the company by Mr. H. B. Bowen, chief of motive power and rolling stock.

The new locomotive will have a two-wheel leading truck, five pairs of driving wheels and a four-wheel trailing truck. It will be known as the T-4-A class. The locomotive alone will weigh approximately 466,500 pounds and the tender 207,500 pounds, making a total weight of 674,000 pounds or 322 tons, 14,000 pounds heavier than the 5000's and 120,000 pounds heavier than the 2800's. The T-4-A will operate under multiple pressure and will burn oil fuel. High pressure steam will be used in the boiler, with the exception only of materials that are not procurable from Canadian manufacturers. Plans for the design were recently completed for the company by Mr. H. B. Bowen, chief of motive power and rolling stock.

This steam will be generated by heat interchange coils in the high pressure drum, a pressure of approximately 1,250 pounds will be carried in the closed generating system and heat interchange coils. The locomotive will have three cylinders, the high pressure of the center cylinder being 15½ inches diameter by 28 inches stroke and the two outer or low pressure cylinders 24 inches diameter by 28 inches stroke. The tender, almost an exact duplicate of existing types, will have an oil fuel capacity of 4,100 imperial gallons and a water capacity of 12,000 imperial gallons.

San Sotico Prevented From Aiding British Tanker Off Puerto, Mexico

VERA CRUZ, Mex., Jan. 6.—The British tanker Lunula was ashore last night on a sandbank, five miles from Puerto Mexico, in the southern part of this province, with her engines disabled by water which had poured in through a hole in the hull.

Another British vessel, the San Sotico, was only a mile away when an SOS was sent by the stranded ship, but the high was kicked up by the northerly gale prevented her from approaching. She lowered two launches, however, to assist.

It was hoped that with help from Puerto Mexico the Lunula might be floated when the seas moderated.

LIGHTHOUSE MEN SEEK INK SUPPLY

Beacon Guardians Find $1 Worth of Stamps Per Annum Insufficient

At the monthly meeting of the Amalgamated Civil Servants of Canada last evening, the secretary was instructed to look into the matter of the Government supplying pens, pencils, ink and other writing material to lighthouse keepers of British Columbia, this having been discontinued in 1927.

With additional information required on weather reports, barometer readings and radiophone statistics, an added strain has been placed upon lighthouse keepers in a monetary way. Lightkeepers at present are only provided with a number of letterheads and $1 worth of stamps per annum.

The matter of Dominion Government night watchmen having to work eighty-four hours per week was referred to the national secretary of the Civil Servants at Ottawa.

Those present at the meeting learned that an appeal board in the near future would sit in Victoria to consider salaries of medical stenographers of the Department of the Interior.

Mr. A. Shrimpton, president of the Victoria branch of the Amalgamated Civil Servants, was congratulated by members upon his recent appointment to district inspector of electricity and gas for the Federal Government. Members felt that their policy of promotion within the service was at last beginning to bear fruit.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the auditor, Mr. Walter Lorimer, for his report showing a balance of $195.00 in the bank. The report of the auditor of November 2 showed an expense of $48.07 for eighty-five who attended.

The council learned with regret of the death of Mr. W. Ward, a Public Works branch, on New Year's Eve. A wreath was sent to the funeral.

New members joined the council at the meeting, one from the Public Works Department and one from the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

Spring Set for Completion of Air Mail Route

OTTAWA, Jan. 6.—The last link in the transcanada air mail chain will probably be put into place early in the Spring, postoffice officials stated last night. It is hoped to institute a service between Montreal and Winnipeg via Sudbury in the near future. A contract with United States mail routes also will be made at Fargo, N.D.

SUBMARINE BOAT LINE LIQUIDATES

Receiver Is Appointed for Corporation by Federal Government

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Mr. C. E. Mynard has been appointed receiver for the Submarine Boat Corporation and its subsidiary, the Transmarine Line. Two of the company's ships, the Succinea and the Surischoo, are tied up here pending a settlement. The Succinea, now on her way to port, will be tied up on arrival.

It has been expected in West Coast shipping circles that the Transmarine Line would soon go out of business. His opinion being based on the report from the East that the company had given up its lease on terminal at Port New York, several months ago.

Withdrawal of the fleet from the intercoastal trade is not expected to have any serious effect on the other lines in the trade. The ships of the company are small cargo carriers and have handled principally low-grade cargo

ENFORCEMENT TO BULK BIG THIS SESSION

While House and Senate
Will Try to Strengthen
Laws, Drys Mean to Move
in Cautious Way

BEERS AND WINES TO BE SOUGHT FOR

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 6.—(British United Press)—Drys in House and Senate are planning to carry their drive for tightening enforcement from the floor of both Houses now that Congress has reconvened from a holiday recess notable for its prohibition agitation.

The Jones resolution for a Congressional committee to plan a co-ordination of Federal enforcement agencies is expected to be taken up in the House this week. It will be adopted without any determined display of opposition.

Vice-President Curtis and Speaker Longworth are ready to appoint outstanding drys to the committee which will receive the recommendations of President Hoover's Law Enforcement Commission as a basis for its inquiry.

Wets, fewer in numbers than ever, and somewhat disorganized, will stand by powerless, but are expected to voice their dissent as before.

WETS TO MEET

The House "Wet Bloc" will hold a meeting during the week to talk over procedure.

With absolutely no chance for modification of the Volstead Act in the present Congress, wets will devote themselves to a campaign of propaganda in behalf of a bill to permit light wines and beer.

Now eleven wet measures are pending against forty-three dry bills. There have been 237 attempts to modify the law in the ten years of national prohibition, the anniversary of which will be observed on January 16, but only one of them got out of committee, and this with an adverse report, which was promptly adopted.

Thorough sifting of the charges of Senator Borah, of Idaho, against the present enforcement system will be unavoidable, despite the efforts of the leaders of both Houses to prevent it. A gentleman's agreement has been entered by Senate leaders to consider no legislation except the tariff bill until that measure is finally passed, but the agreement does not include a suspension of debate upon any subject.

CHINESE HAVE DOUBTS ABOUT SOVIET REDS

Send Large Armed Expeditions Into Mountains to See That Peace Is Not Broken Again

HARBIN WATCHING RUSSIAN ACTIONS

By PAUL WRIGHT
(Copyright, 1929, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service.)

HARBIN, Manchuria, Jan. 6.—The Chinese, possibly not accepting at face value the Soviet assurance that Barga is open to Chinese forces, or fearing that disbanded Chinese troops may have taken charge of the area, have dispatched an armed expedition west of the Kharin Mountains larger than was first announced. The entire 4th Brigade, about 1,000 men, has been sent from Tatsienkhar.

To date about 1,600 prisoners have been released from the Sungbei concentration camp. Elsewhere in the Harbin district twenty-four remain in custody, expecting their freedom at once. The liberation of prisoners has been accomplished without incident, but Harbin is watching the activities of Soviet citizens to discover whether or not excesses are likely.

Only minor collisions have occurred between the Whites and Reds. Although elated over the victory, the Reds have conducted themselves decently towards the White Russians, as well as the Chinese. A rumor asserts that the Reds were especially irritated by fellow Soviets who retained positions with the Chinese Eastern Railway while others resigned and went to prison.

Since the beginning of the new year, the relationship between Russians and Chinese has been modifying from technical national hostility to the point of personal friction as a result of mutual recognition of the meaning of the recent Chinese Eastern Railway conflict. This new tendency is reflected in an incident, the like of which has occurred often, involving four Chinese soldiers who ordered a motor bus chauffeur to stop at an illegal point. The driver, a Russian, refused to obey and stopped at the nearest regular station, whereupon the soldiers dragged him from his seat and proceeded to beat him up. A crowd collected and other Russians, learning of the fact, attacked the soldiers and chased them off. Such a sign of the changed times was impossible six months ago.

CONGRESS AT WORK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Faced with the incomplete Tariff Bill, the controversy over prohibition and a host of other questions that may necessitate their remaining at work until Summer, the Senate and House reconvened today after a recess over the Christmas-New Year holiday season.
